

For Your Information

Photos Wanted

The Museum for Textiles in Toronto wonders if any Women's Institute member owns or knows of a picture of a quilting bee dating from the turn-of-the-century or before. If you do, please contact the FWIO Tweedsmuir Curator, Marcie Johnston, at RR 4, Listowel, Ontario, N4W 3G9, (519)291-2949.

4-H Anniversary

Come celebrate the 80th anniversary of 4-H at the Ontario Agricultural Museum on July 29 and 30, 1995. We are looking for past members, leaders and Rural Organization Specialists who were involved with 4-H. So, please, write or call the Ontario 4-H Council at RR 1, Thornloe, Ontario, P0J 1S0, (705)563-2104, to get on the mailing list for events in your area and across Ontario.

Quilt Competition

The Centennial Quilt Competition - "Patterns of Time" - is open to all members, Branches, Districts and Areas of the Ontario Women's Institute. An intent to enter application should be sent no later than December 31, 1994, to Lois Urstadt (see address below). The Quilt Competition Entry Form and Entry Fee must be received by March 31, 1995 to allow time for printing the catalogue. Please, make entry fee cheques payable to the Centennial Quilt Competition.

All quilts must arrive at the Ontario Agricultural Museum in Milton, Ontario, on May 19, 1995, and will be left on display until August 31, 1995. For more information about the Quilt Competition, contact Lois Urstadt, the Chair of the Centennial Quilt Committee, at RR 7, Owen Sound, Ontario, N4K 6V5, (519)376-9876.

Award-winning Video

HeartSafe, a co-production of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Canada and the Canadian Cardiovascular Society, received the Best Film award in the "patient education" category at the International Health and Medical Film Festival awards ceremony this past year. The hour-long video provides up-to-date information about heart disease, and comes with a 20-page guide on what you can do to make your lifestyle more heart-healthy. To order a copy, call 1-800-843-7955, or write HeartSafe, 302-1132 Hamilton St., Vancouver, BC, V6Z 2S2. The cost is $29.95 plus tax and shipping.

Artifacts

at the Adelaide Hunter
Hoodless Homestead

This silver jewellery box is another Hunter family heirloom. The chain of a man's pocket watch is meant to drape over the hook while the watch itself sits in the shell. The jewellery box was donated by Miss Muriel Bostwick, Adelaide's granddaughter.

For more information about the Homestead contact Sue Doiron, Curator, Adelaide Hunter Hoodless Homestead, RR 1, Blue Lake Rd., St. George, Ontario, N0E 1N0, (519)448-1130.
