Wellington Centre District WI

As part of the final development year for the Fergus-Elora Rotary Heritage Gardens, this District donated lilac trees which were planted at the Wellington County Museum and Archives.

Moyle WI

Flo Custerus, a retired nurse and Baptist Missionary, spoke of her experiences in Vizagapatam, northeast of Madras, India. She taught English in the schools and to handicapped children. She displayed fine examples of crochet and embroidery work done by the local Indian women.

Rosemont WI

Jenny McIlwee, a volunteer with the Rosemont Fire Department, presented Fire Chief Jim Stone with a $1000 cheque on behalf of the Rosemont Women's Institute. The money will go toward the purchasing of a floating suction head.

Garnet WI

This Branch recently studied how to be a "good consumer" in today's society and economy. They discussed the different kinds of shoppers: the hunter, the bargain seeker, the needy buyer, the secret spender, and the compulsive buyer.
