ON THE COVER

Warm rain, warm friendships and a cherished annual event for the Russell Village WI ladies as they dress the Russell Village planters. Pictured are the soggy RVWI gardeners (L-R) Cherry Bekkers, Ina Henry, Mary Inglis and Diny Achtereekte. Jean Williams took the picture. This year a mixture of purple wave and white petunias and some grasses from Meadowgreen Nurseries were used. The Russell Horticultural Society graciously provided some additions of heirloom flowers, Amaranthus variety, for use in six of the thirteen planter boxes in honour of the 150th Anniversary of the Russell Fair. The result should be some very interesting, historical and colourful selections for all to enjoy!
