

in the township were closed, this school was acquired by a group of local ladies from the Board of Education for a nominal sum. It was maintained as a Community Centre for several years until in 1976 it became a Branch of the Apsley Public Library.

Compiled by Mildred Tucker
June 1986