

given them notes and diaries of former members of the parish. We are greatly indebted to the first minister of the Parish, Canon Philip Harding who made many important notes in his well kept diary and also to The Reverend Claude Spence who began the early history while he was serving in Apsley.

This is but the beginning of an ever increasing story which goes on everyday and will continue, by the Grace of God, until the end of all time.

Glenn A. Sim