DESMOND TRUDEAU

Nobody glorifies war in itself; what is glorified is the personal giving of self in service of country, even to the point of life itself. This coming Monday the occasion of Armistice has deeper than usual significance because it is the 50th anniversary of that Nov. 11 in 1918 when battered Europe ceased fire and peace came with joy...and sorrow. The above Honour Roll, taken off the face of the Cenotaph in Arnprior, stands out in permanent tribute to those who died valiantly serving. In these days of seeming evading peace and distress among nations, there is surely the message from those who lie buried in honoured graves...May we not have died in vain, to foster world brotherhood.

Hearts stand still, and murmur silent prayers amid mindful reverence, undimmed over fifty turbulent years.
