Gas pipe line to pass behind Bonnechere Manor

Admaston Council met with representatives of the Ottawa Gas Co. to study the proposed route for the pipe line through Admaston Township.

The pipe line, which will pass behind Bonnechere Manor, will enter Admaston on the town line at the Mask property. From the plant at Renfrew Junction it will pass under the Bonnechere River five feet below the river bed, following the town line between Admaston and Horton with easements through private property where it is necessary to leave the road allowance.

The Reeve was authorized to sign the plan upon receipt of a
