

The Renfrew Canadian Pacific station, featuring the same styling as the stations in Almonte, Arnprior, Carleton Place and Pembroke.

The station office, with an old-fashioned clock to make sure things are on time.

Train operator Carl Baker: "There's just something about a train that's fascinating."

Train operator Blair Laidlow jots down some messages for an incoming train crew in the station office.