

Some of the 250 log buildings counted on the Heritage Renfrew bus tour Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Tom Smith presented Mr and Mrs Andrew McGregor with a gift during a retirement party for Mr McGregor last Thursday night. Andrew, who had been an employee of Horton Township for 28 years, was honored at a dinner at Butson's attended by Horton council members and employees.

May 1, 1885

Perth Courier reported a number of pallbearers smoking clay pipes which was a novel feature in a funeral procession as it made its melancholy way through the town.

Maple Home, cheese factory in the village had opened for the season.

No K & P passenger trains had moved to or from Renfrew during the past week. There had been a washout between Flower and Mississippi. One report said two miles of track was washed away.

Duncan Ferguson had taken agency for, Thymocresol, which was described as a "universal purifier." It also was good as a detergent, disinfectant, deodorizer, antiseptic and insecticide. It was useful for dressing wounds, cleaning premises of offensive smells, clearing out rats, mice and other vermin and for the destruction of insects.

May 6, 1910

Liquor side had appealed a local option by-law but courts in Toronto sustained the law. The liquor side had to pay the costs.

One hundred and sixteen dogs had been tagged and Town Clerk J K Rochester expected the number would go to 150.

P D Stewart advertised Massey-Harris mowers, rakes, with automatic dump, hay loaders, side delivery rakes and hay tenders.

Union SS No 4 McNab and No 10 Horton advertised for a teacher. Salary was $450 per annum.

The scenery used at Temperance Hall was advertised for sale. It was comparatively new.

K & P trains made connections with CPR trains at Sharbot Lake, and with Bay of Quinte trains at Harrowsmith.