THE LATE REV. GEO. THOMSON, M.A.

Who was Minister in 1851, when the first Renfrew Presbyterian Church was opened and continued until his death,

DUNCAN CAMPBELL

A familiar figure in Renfrew for several years and one who formerly farmed in Admaston township passes off the scene by the death of Mr. Duncan Campbell. He was a wellknown and popular citizen who carried his years lightly. The deceased was one of one of Admaston's best known families of whom there now remain but one brother and one sister, Mr. P. J. Campbell of Renfrew and Mrs. John Shaw of Lake Dore. He had been ill for about three weeks, a sufferer from peritonitis, and died on Saturday, in his 87th year. The funeral took place from his late residence, 404 Lynn street, on Monday afternoon to the Admaston cemetery, Rev. Mr. Rolling conducting services at the home and also at the cemetery, being assisted at the place of burial by Rev. Mr. McMullen of Admaston. Pall-bearers McMullen of Admaston. Pall-bearers were Messrs. Duncan McGregor, Peter Pender, Duncan Campbell, Lorne Campbell, Arthur Campbell and Wm. Campbell. Surviving the deceased is his second wife; there is also a son by the first union, the son being Akan Campbell of Francis, Saskatchewan. The late Mr. Campbell lived in the West for a while er leaving Admaston; he also took ip to the Old Country. In Renhe lived in religious

OCT OF ADMASTON 1918

There have been two funerals here this week—those of Robert Sharp and Albert Wilson, both havbeen victims of the influenza epidemic.

Others, who are down with it are Mr. Sam Dunfield and his whole family, now mostly all better but Mrs. Dunfield; George McDougall and his family; David Fulton, who bought the Fields farm; and James and Mary Fulton, living on the David Leckie place, are also under the weather. Alex. Fulton, son of Mr. Alex. Fulton, living near the sta-tion, has also been severely ill and this week the report from Victoria hospital is that he has been very low.

CROZIER-NAISMITH.

An interesting event took place on January 28th at 11.30 a.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Naismith of Admaston. The occasion was the marriage of their daughter Jessie to Henry Crozier of Northcote. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. A. Christie of Ottawa. After the ceremony the friends cresent set down to a well-spread table and did justice to the good things provided. The bride and bridegroom left on the 2.30 train for Western Ontario. On their return they will take up their abode at Mr. Crozier's home in

CHIEF OF POLICE PLAUNT.

At the time of Chief Plaunt's ap-pointment, The Mercury published his portrait in civilian attire. A photo by Handford of the Chief in official garb, looks so much more im-posing that for the benefit of old friends now away, we reproduce in herewith
