

Elizabeth Campbell weds G. Ferguson

Grace United church in Admaston was decorated with baskets of bronze and white mums and bitter sweet for the wedding Saturday, October 29 of Miss Elizabeth Anne Campbell to Gordon Alexander Ferguson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs John Lorne Campbell of Admaston and the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Charles Ferguson of Cornwall.

Rev E C Amaron, DD, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given away by her father. The maid of honor was Miss Betty MacNerney. Miss Sheila Ferguson, a sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Miss Linda Foy a niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The groomsmen were Newell Brown of Cornwall and the ushers were Kenneth Ferguson, a brother of the groom, and Robert Campbell, a brother of the bride. Tom Plaunt of New Liskeard was organist and Don Campbell was soloist.

The bride chose a full length gown, victorian model, of pure silk French faille. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Appliques enhanced the neckline of heavy guipure lace medallions and lilypoint sleeves. Her elbow length veil was held by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of tawny gold and cream roses and trailing ivy.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid each wore a spruce green velveteen gown with a rounded neckline, elbow length sleeves and semi-full skirts accented at the back by two self roses. They wore matching head bands of velveteen with two self roses and petals and velveteen mitts. The junior bridesmaid wore a gown of the same style but in gold velveteen.

The maid of honor's and bridesmaids' bouquets were cascades of bronze mums and bittersweet with trailing ivy.

The bride's mother wore a blue sapphire lace over taffeta dress with matching hat and black accessories. The groom's mother wore a moss green silk sheath dress with matching hat and black accessories. A wedding dinner was held in the Pinnacle room of the Valley Hotel.

Mr and Mrs Ferguson left on a wedding trip to the Northern United States and the western provinces. On their return they will reside at 101 Baldwin street, Cornwall. Mrs Ferguson is a graduate of Cornwall General hospital and Mr Ferguson is a graduate of the OAC, Guelph. For travelling the bride wore a forest green wool sheath dress with dark brown coat and dark brown accessories, a golden colored feather hat and tawny-gold roses en corsage.

Guests from a distance were from Cornwall, Long Sault, Napanee, Kingston, Martintown, Ottawa, Pointe Claire, Que., Brussels, Perth, Kemptville, New Liskeard, Bainsville, Alexandria, Hamilton, Woodstock, Iroquois and Sarnia.

Mrs. James Campbell entertained a large number of friends Saturday evening at a shower for Miss Elizabeth Campbell whose marriage takes place the end of the month. The gifts were drawn in a decorated waggon by Sandy Campbell. Games and contests were directed by Miss Diane Campbell, Miss Willis Gibbons and Miss Margaret Box. Winners of the contests were Miss Beverley Tackman, Mrs. Murray Box, Miss Myrtle Brown and Miss Thelma Box.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Ferguson who were married in Grace United Church in Admaston Saturday, October 29. Mrs. Ferguson is the former Elizabeth Anne Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Campbell of Admaston, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson of Cornwall. Photo by Handfor