

6. The gentry of the township laws, became aware of this prevailing women's Institute, and generously offered them the use of the township Hall, their meeting to congregate.

7. They scrubbed and they rubbed, and they mopped the floor clean.
They sang and they danced, and even cooked beans
Some times <sup>they</sup> left their poor husbands, the children to mind,
While they group together a quilt to bind.

8. Through years of depression, and mighty hard times with courage and persistence they struggled <sup>through</sup> ~~along~~ to <sup>wife</sup>;
Childrens clothing were made, and quilts galore,
Wool socks were knit, <sup>boxes were packed</sup> for the soldier's at war.

9. Now as the game of life took its stride
Not all the members could stay,
To finish some task they intended their goal
They've left us with only memories <sup>for</sup> to-day.

10. <sup>Just think</sup> Now 65 years is a long, long time

Do stay tuned into one small group.

But with memories of laughter, tears and cares

It's a life long treasure of friendship well shared.
