

Opening Ode.

A goodly thing it is to meet
In friend-ship's circle bright;
Where nothing stains the pleasure sweet,
Nor dims the radiant light.
No unkind words our lips shall pass,
No envy sour the mind,
But each shall seek the common weal—
The good of all mankind.

A prayer with the title, "Collect For Club Women," Keep us O Lord from pettiness — let us be large in thought in word, and deed:

Let us be done with fault finding and leave —
off self seeking:

May we put away all pretence and meet — each other face to face, without self pity and without prejudice:

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous:

Let us take time for all things: make us grow
calm, serene, gentle:

Teach us to put into action our better impulses
straight forward and unafraid:

Grant that we may realize that it is the little things that create differences; that in the — big things of life we are one:

And may we strive to touch, and know, the great human heart common to us all, and O Lord God let us not forget to be kind:

We thank Thee, Father, for Thy care,

Food, friends and kindness we share;

May we forever mindful be

Of "home and Country" and of Thee.
