

Ladies gave her a set of table linen.

A roll call. Have you made your will? if not, why not?

Social events in the Institute book of 1927-1929.

Sept. Plan to hold a fowl supper October 20 Admission 50¢ and 25¢

Jan 28 Ladies decided to provide lunch at Bonspiel 50¢ per meal.

June 15 Miss Guest was present and gave talk on helping boys and girls find the right life work. The ladies of the Walkerton W.I. were our guests, and enjoyed this talk too.

Oct 12-1928 This was an open meeting to entertain the men, and the president retired, and Clark Elliott acted as chairman

Rev Will Taylor gave a talk on "League of nations"

Jan 1928 Miss Minnie Jeffray gave a reading on "Why we go to church"

Feb 1929 A Valentine contest and an old time spelling match.

Dec 1929 The ladies decided to sell season tickets for skating at 20¢ each curling 25¢ each and 51¢ for hockey.

April 1929 A play entitled "Only Sally Ann" presented by Young People of S.S. No 9 April 25.

April There was a lemon pie contest. Miss Minnie Jeffray got first prize for her pie, and Margaret Edwards second prize, a fancy plate was given each.

June 1 Roll call suggestions for a bride's hope chest.

July Through the years many members have been surprised by having a birthday cake made in their honor, a kindly and thoughtful gesture.

November 27 Plans were made for a fowl supper.

Beautification of the farm home was a motto given by Evelyn Lincoln.

What the W.I. can do for the community by Mrs. Appleby.