

Following three weeks of hospitalization, Mrs. Frederick T. Dustow of 289 Minnie Street, Wingham, passed away Thursday, October 12, at the Wingham and District Hospital. Mrs. Dustow was in her 83rd year and had been in failing health for some time.

Born and educated in Howick Township, Mrs. Dustow was the former Lulu Elizabeth Wylie, a daughter of the late George Wylie and Elizabeth Gamble. She married Mr. Dustow in December of 1913 in Howick Township and they farmed at RR 2, Mildmay for many years before retiring to live in Wingham in 1963. He predeceased her in March of 1965.

Mrs. Dustow was a member of the Wingham United Church and the Mary Hastings Club. She was also a life member of the Women's Missionary Society.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Gordon (Myrtle) Grant, Teeswater, Mrs. Gerald (Beatrice) Brophy, Wingham, Mrs. Charles (Irene) Perrott, Guelph, and Mrs. Homer (Doris) Yack, Kitchener; one son, Oliver Dustow of Carrick Township; eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren. One sister and one brother also survive, Mrs. Grace Dustow of Gorrie and Jack Wylie of Wroxeter. She was predeceased by one brother and one sister.

The late Mrs. Dustow rested at the S. J. Walker Funeral Home, Wingham, until Sunday at two o'clock when funeral service was conducted by Rev. K. Barry Passmore. Interment followed in McIntosh Cemetery.

Pallbearers were six grandsons, James Grant, Donald Robb, Brian Perrott, Ron Perrott, Doug Yack and Michael Yack. Floral tributes were carried by Peter Askey and Ed Williamson.

1978.

Anne Campbell dies in London

Miss Anne M. Campbell of Lorne Ave., London, formerly of Wingham, passed away in Victoria Hospital, London, in her 69th year. She was the daughter of the late William J. Campbell and Mary Hutton, formerly of RR 2, Wingham.

Left to mourn are two brothers, James H. Campbell, Wingham, and John L. Campbell, London; also one sister, Jean B. Campbell of London. She was predeceased by one sister, Marybelle. She was the dear aunt of Linda Campbell, Toronto, and Robert Campbell, London.

The late Miss Campbell rested at the James M. Carrothers Funeral Home, 843 Dundas Street, London, where complete funeral and committal service was held April 4 at two o'clock with Rev. Farquhar MacKinnon of Centennial United Church officiating. Interment followed in Wingham.

Mrs. Georgina May Gowing of 359 Edward St., Wingham, died at the Wingham and District Hospital on Wednesday of last week in her 82nd year. She had suffered only a short illness.

Mrs. Gowing was the former Georgina May Wooddisse, a daughter of the late George Wooddisse and his wife, Sophia McCullough and was born in Maryborough Township, Wellington County on August 11, 1896. She was married to Melvin Bruce Gowing at Rothsay on Dec. 4, 1918. Her husband died in 1962. Mrs. Gowing was a member of the Wingham United Church.

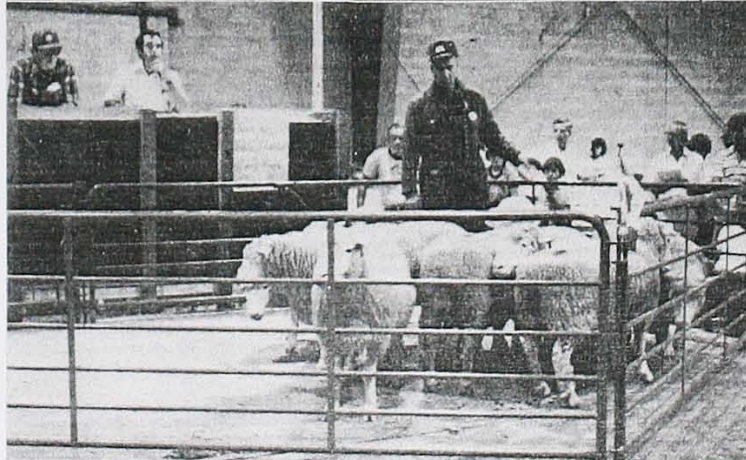

She is survived by three sons and one daughter, Carl Gowing, RR 2, Bluevale; Norman Gowing, Blyth; Howard Gowing, Tiverton and Mrs. Bruce (Donelda) Deckert, Cambridge; one sister and two brothers, Mrs. Emerson (Jessie) McNeil, Drayton; Richard Wooddisse, Rothsay and Hugh Wooddisse, Palmerston. There are 13 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by three brothers, Walter, Thomas and James Wooddisse.

The funeral service was conducted at the R. A. Currie and Son Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. Saturday by Rev. K. Barry Passmore and interment was in the Wroxeter Cemetery. Pallbearers were six grandsons, David, Nell, Kenneth, Paul and John Gowing and Wallace Chalmers. The floral tributes were carried by Ross Dannabecker, David Wheeler and Bruce Corrigan. 1977.

Canada Isn't Baa-a-a-d After All

725 New Zealand Pedigree Poll Dorsets from New Zealand are thinking that perhaps their new home in Canada isn't that bad after all. One thing, by moving here at this time, they managed to escape a winter season. (Top Photo) - New owner Walter Renwick (left) is explaining some of our customs with Don Robinson (centre) and Monty Ericson (right) who came with the shipment. May 1978. -Crier

These ten Dorset sheep were the number one sale at Sheep Focus '78 in Markham. The sheep are owned by Walter Renwick, RR 1 Clifford. July 20, 1978.

TOP DORSET—A Dorset lamb of New Zealand breeding stock from the flock of Walter Renwick, RR 1 Clifford, was the top-gaining lamb among the group of 51 fall-born Dorsets which completed test at the Ontario Sheep Test Station, New Hamburg. This growthy graduate averaged one pound per day during the 50-day test period and was the

The death of Matilda (Tillie) Beatrice Farrell took place at the Hanover District Hospital, on Sunday, February 26, 1978. She was born in Carrick Township on December 31, 1886, 91 years ago, and was a daughter of the late John R. Farrell and Ellen Nickel. She spent her life in Carrick township until 31 years ago retired to Clifford where she was active in various public organizations.

Surviving is one sister, Mary Farrell of Clifford and a number of cousins. Predeceased by one brother John of Belmore.

The remains rested at the F.M. Garrett Funeral Chapel where the funeral service and committal