The Bluevale/Belmore Young People have once again begun for the season.

Congratulations are extended to Bill and Cindy De Vos on the birth of their son William Jason. Jason will be spoiled by brother and sisters Heather, Lindsay, Fernanda and Tyler. He was born Sunday Nov. 14th and will soon require a hair cut, weighing in at 10 lb. 5 oz. and measuring 24 inches in length!!!

The sincere sympathy of the community is extended to Elaine, Harry, Angie and Sandra Busby on the sudden passing of Elaine's father Steve Matlock in his 67th year on Saturday November the 13th. Funeral service was held Tuesday in Owen Sound with interment in Elmira on Thursday. Besides Elaine and her family he leaves to mourn his passing his wife Gertie, Charlotte of Kitchener, Mary of Port Elgin, Joni of North Bay, Steve of London and Ed of Tara and their families.

Hostesses for the W.I. Card party Thursday evening were Betty Darling, Doris Hays, Marlis Hofmann and Edith Stokes. Seven tables of card players enjoyed the evening. High lady went to Ruby Armstrong, second high lady was Flora Willits, high man went to Les Douglas, second high was Alan Darling, most lone hands went to Russel Nickel and the door prize was won by Steve Pocluyko. The next card party is scheduled for Thursday Dec. 2nd.

The Moms of the Belmore Moms and Tots have been busy making the final arrangements for their annual craft sale which will be held in the Belmore Arena Saturday Nov. 27th from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Many vendors will be on hand, bake table and lunch available so don't miss this opportunity to do some Christmas shopping and visit with your neighbours!

A brass keepsake item has been found on the 10th of Turnberry. Owner must identify same and provide proof for visual inspection as the item is part of a matched set. No reward is sought by finder and no storage costs are owen.

The United Church Women had their monthly meeting Wednesday, November 17. Jean Crocker had the devotions. Deb Metcalfe read two poems and a meditational reading. There was a report on the Presbytery. Funds are being sent to the Presbytery Lay Foundation. Margaret Woods had a feature - Don't Leave Your Brain at Home when you go to Church. The December meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 15 in Belle Haven Lounge and the Country Cooks will cater the meal.

Best wishes are extended to Deanne Dickson as she rests at home following her accident on the icy road to work Saturday morning. All are thankful she had her seat belt on.

Get well wishes are extended to Mae Johann as she is currently a patient in Wingham and District Hospital.

The Knox Presbyterian Church held their annual pot luck dinner Saturday evening with 65 attending.

Jennifer Fitch held a surprise party Saturday evening for her husband, Arthur, and father-in-law, Carl, who were both celebrating birthdays.

The Thrill of Motocross

Steve Eadie is pictured flying high over the final tabletop at the Paisley R.A.T. track this past summer. Steve enjoys the thrill of motocross racing even though it is a very demanding and often dangerous sport. The 1993 fall Maple Leaf MX series has been his best to date, placing 2nd overall in the 125 Beginner class (30 riders) and 3rd overall in the GP Beginner class (15-20 riders). Steve achieved his first overall race win at Farrington MX park near Barrie in October. He looks forward to the 94 season and plans to step up and compete in the Junior ranks.

Randy Scott visits from Brooks, Alberta

Randy Scott of Brooks, Alberta flew into Toronto on Saturday morning to watch his nieces from Bluevale, Jenni and Ashley Campbell, play hockey. The girls play for the Wingham Hawks and their team had put out a London girls' team to advance to the All Ontario Provincial championships in Mississauga.

He then came to Belmore to the Pancake Festival and visited with friends. On Sunday he had a 'nearly Easter' with his parents, Don and Doris Caesar, his Grandma Bertha Struthers, sisters Chris, Pat and Vickie, their husbands and families.

Randy returned to Brooks on Monday. He says "hello" to his friends and relatives.
