

Page 5

Kincardine area man dies in car-truck crash

BERVIE — A Kincardine area farmer was killed yesterday in a car-truck collision on Highway 8 two miles east of here.

Stuart Armstrong 78, of RR 4, Kincardine, was the deceased at the scene.

Dr. M. R. Hollowell, Kincardine coroner.

Mr. Armstrong was a passenger in a half-ton pickup truck driven by his son, Aurel, 23, of Kincardine Township. He was the driver of the car. Lorne Brown, of RR 1, Kincardine, was treated for cuts and bruises at Kincardine and District General Hospital and released.

Provincial police from Kincardine said both vehicles were heading east at the time of collision.

Dr. Hollowell said last night no date has been set for the inquest.

Besides his son, Mr. Armstrong is survived by his wife, the former Mary Collins; a daughter, Mrs. Dawson; Joyce Pollock, of Wingham; and brother, Oscar, of Bervie.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the McLeenan Funeral Home, Kincardine. Burial will be in Kincardine Cemetery.

ALMA MACKENZIE
Mrs. Alma Mackenzie, beloved wife of the late lan A. Mackenzie of Lambton County, Kincardine, passed away suddenly on Monday, July 28, 1980 in Toronto General Hospital.

She was the daughter of the late John Norman MacLeod and Christina MacLeod of the North Line.

She is survived by one sister Mary (Mayme), Richmond, of Noyab, Ont.

one sister-in-law Anna Stirling of Kincardine and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

The funeral was from the Linklater Funeral home at 2 p.m. Thursday, July 31, 1980.

Palbearers were Norval MacLeod, Bert Nickolson, Murray Johnson, William Little, Leonard Sanderson and David Lepper.

GEORGE ROBERTSON

A native of Kincardine township, George O. Robertson died February 24 in Greenock township as the result of a heart attack. Mr. Robertson, a son of Forbes Robertson and Mary Kerr, was born on November 20, 1891.

Mr. Robertson was born and raised on the ninth concession of Kincardine township and started farming there in 1919. In the year, on June 17, he married Elizabeth Carson in Kincardine.

Farming on the ninth until 1930 he then moved to the fifth concession of Kincardine township when he lived until 1947 when he retired and moved to Kincardine.

Surviving besides his wife are three sons, Donald, Georgetown William, Kincardine township and Edna; Elmie; two daughters, Miss William (Leona) Young, Fort St. John, B.C.; Mrs. Alex (Edna) Stewart, Kincardine township and twelve grandchildren.

The deceased was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters, Armoor.

Funeral services were held on Friday, February 28, from the Linklater Funeral Home in Kincardine. Rev. Victor Willmott officiated. Interment was in Kincardine cemetery.

Palbearers were George Swallow, James Thompson, Wallace Woods, Ralph Robertson, John Hodgins and William Smith. Flower bearers were Jim Mottison, Bob White, Gary Woods, Edna Hodgins, Wray Mouton, Keith Keslake, Wray McConnell, Robert White and Glenn McConnell.

Those attending from a distance were from North Bay, Kitchener, Preston, Clinton, Bayfield, Goderich and Walkerton.

GEORGE ALEXANDER HICKS

George Alexander Hicks of 225 Harbour Street, Kincardine, passed away suddenly July 25, 1980, in Kincardine.

Born in Kincardine Township on September 10, 1861, he was the son of Whitfield Hicks and Elizabeth Cole.

He married Rebecca Evans in Armoor on March 16, 1926.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, Capt. Ronald Hicks, CFB Borden, and one daughter, Donna (Mrs. Gordon McQuillan) of Sarnia.

He is also survived by sisters Vera Stanley and Alice Leggett, both of Kincardine.

He was a member of the United Church. The funeral service was held July 28, 1980, at the Linklater Funeral Home, Kincardine, with Rev. Gerald Paul officiating.

Palbearers were Walter Hogg, Walter Daniel, Lynn Farrell, James Campbell, Dean Hewitt and Mervin Anderson.

WILBERT FREDERICK HODGINS

Wilbert Frederick Hodgins of 437 Shuter Street, Wingham, passed away suddenly on Wednesday, February 25, at Milwaukee Medical Complex, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, after suffering a heart attack. He was in his 57th year.

Mr. Hodgins was born in Bervie, Bruce County, Kincardine Township, on November 12, 1924. He was a son of the former Florence Sheane and the late Frederick Hodgins. He received his elementary education at Bervie Public School and farmed at RR 4, Kincardine until 1955 when he became a truck driver. He was most recently employed as owner-operator of Frederick Transport, Dundas.

A former member of Bervie United Church, Mr. Hodgins had resided in Wingham since 1965.

Besides his mother, Mr. Hodgins is survived by his wife, the former Pearl King, whom he married in Adamsville United Church on June 11, 1947; one son, Larry, and his wife, Verna, of Wingham; one daughter, Mrs. Ron (Lana) Abbott, and her husband of Bradford; four grandchildren, Debbie and Gavin Hodgins and Shamus and Brit Abbott; and one sister, Mrs. Jack (Eunice) Fair, Kincardine.

The late Wilbert Hodgins rested at the Currie-Walker Funeral Home, Wingham.

He is also survived by two grandchildren, Michael and Adam and one brother, Loran of Bervie.

Mr. Peter was born in Bervie, Kincardine Township, where he attended school. He later worked as a mechanic in Kincardine and Paisley. In 1952 he and his family moved to Warton.

The funeral was held at the George Funeral Home on Friday, February 20, 1981 with Rev. Jim Seagran officiating.

Acting pallbearers were Almer Bray, Forbes Symon, Bill Long, Jim Hawen, Irwin Dodds and Stuart Howe.

Spring interment will be in Bayview Cemetery, Warton.

Palbearers were Don McQuillan, Bill Doek, Duncan Cochrane, Bill Splan and Bob Keddy.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were from Sarnia, Toronto, Ingersoll, Goderich, Strathroy and London.

Palbearers were Don McQuillan, Bill Doek, Duncan Cochrane, Bill Splan and Bob Keddy.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were from Sarnia, Toronto, Ingersoll, Goderich, Strathroy and London.

where Rev. Hugh Nugent conducted funeral service Sunday at two o'clock. Interment followed in Wingham Cemetery.

Palbearers were Ron Scheffer, Murray Scott and Paul McNally, all of Wingham, Len Campbell of Waterloo, Cecil Suttan, Ripley, and Willex King, RR 4, Kincardine.

Floral tributes were carried by Wayne Atkinson, Lucknow, Burton Hodgins, Kincardine, Weir Sheane, Inverhuron, and Ivan Laidlaw, Whitechurch.

HOWARD ORVILLE PETER
Howard Orville Peter, son of the late Herbert and Myrtle Peter of Kincardine, passed away at the Bruce Peninsula and District Memorial Hospital on Wednesday, February 18, 1981 after a lengthy illness.

He is survived by his wife, Jessie, the former Jessie Chris of Paisley and two children, Mary Lou, Mrs. Bruce MacDougald of Shallow Lake and Bryan, of Seaforth.

He is also survived by two grandchildren, Michael and Adam and one brother, Loran of Bervie.

Mr. Peter was born in Bervie, Kincardine Township, where he attended school. He later worked as a mechanic in Kincardine and Paisley. In 1952 he and his family moved to Warton.

The funeral was held at the George Funeral Home on Friday, February 20, 1981 with Rev. Jim Seagran officiating.

Acting pallbearers were Almer Bray, Forbes Symon, Bill Long, Jim Hawen, Irwin Dodds and Stuart Howe.

Spring interment will be in Bayview Cemetery, Warton.

ISABELLA COLLINS
Mrs. Isabella Collins of RR 2 Kincardine passed away July 15, 1980, in the Kincardine and District General Hospital after a period of indifferent health. She was in her 92nd year.

Born on the North Line of Kincardine Township on September 12, 1888, she was the daughter of the late Alexander Campbell and Allgail Godfrey. She was the eldest of a family of eight.

She married the late W. Guest Collins of Kincardine Township, Concession Five, on February 21, 1912. He predeceased her in 1960.

She is survived by two daughters, Emily (Mrs. John Bushell) of RR 2 Kincardine and Lauretta (Mrs. Morley Mills) of Delreux Blvd., Georgetown. She is also survived by 22 grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren and one brother, James A.

Campbell of Kincardine. She was predeceased by one son Edward and two step children Allison and Mabel.

She was a member of the Knox Presbyterian Church.

During the years she lived on the farm she was a member of the Zion United Church and took an active part in the women's groups and Sunday School.

The funeral service was held at the Linklater Funeral Home July 18, 1980, with the Rev. George Turner of Knox Presbyterian Church officiating.

Interment in Kincardine Cemetery.

Palbearers were grandsons Wm. Collins, Garry Collins, Keith Bushell, Dennis and Roy Mills and John Ackert.

Flowerbearers were granddaughters Joy Ackert, Dianne Collins, Linda Mior and Lois Dickson.

The many friends who called as well as the floral tributes and donations to the Knox Presbyterian Memorial Fund and Gideons showed the high esteem in which Mrs. Collins was held by all who knew her. Keenly interested in family history, she spent a great deal of her later years aiding in compiling records of the Campbell and Collins families.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were from Toronto, Guelph, Cambridge, Stafford, London, Oil Springs, Inverkip, Victoria and Tilsonburg.

Palbearers were one son Edward and two step children Allison and Mabel.

She was a member of the Knox Presbyterian Church.

During the years she lived on the farm she was a member of the Zion United Church and took an active part in the women's groups and Sunday School.

The funeral service was held at the Linklater Funeral Home July 18, 1980, with the Rev. George Turner of Knox Presbyterian Church officiating.

Interment in Kincardine Cemetery.

Palbearers were grandsons Wm. Collins, Garry Collins, Keith Bushell, Dennis and Roy Mills and John Ackert.

Flowerbearers were granddaughters Joy Ackert, Dianne Collins, Linda Mior and Lois Dickson.

The many friends who called as well as the floral tributes and donations to the Knox Presbyterian Memorial Fund and Gideons showed the high esteem in which Mrs. Collins was held by all who knew her. Keenly interested in family history, she spent a great deal of her later years aiding in compiling records of the Campbell and Collins families.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were from Toronto, Guelph, Cambridge, Stafford, London, Oil Springs, Inverkip, Victoria and Tilsonburg.

Palbearers were one son Edward and two step children Allison and Mabel.

She was a member of the Knox Presbyterian Church.

During the years she lived on the farm she was a member of the Zion United Church and took an active part in the women's groups and Sunday School.

The funeral service was held at the Linklater Funeral Home July 18, 1980, with the Rev. George Turner of Knox Presbyterian Church officiating.

Interment in Kincardine Cemetery.

Palbearers were grandsons Wm. Collins, Garry Collins, Keith Bushell, Dennis and Roy Mills and John Ackert.

Flowerbearers were granddaughters Joy Ackert, Dianne Collins, Linda Mior and Lois Dickson.

The many friends who called as well as the floral tributes and donations to the Knox Presbyterian Memorial Fund and Gideons showed the high esteem in which Mrs. Collins was held by all who knew her. Keenly interested in family history, she spent a great deal of her later years aiding in compiling records of the Campbell and Collins families.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were from Toronto, Guelph, Cambridge, Stafford, London, Oil Springs, Inverkip, Victoria and Tilsonburg.