

WILLIAM RUSSELL McConnell

Funeral services were held at MacLennan, McCreath Funeral Home for William Russell McConnell of Kincardine township who passed away at Kincardine General Hospital on Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1961.

He was born in Cullens Township on June 21, 1895, son of late William and Martha McConnell.

He leaves to mourn his wife, Phyllis (Mrs. Willard McCreath), Carroll Audrey (Mrs. Harvey Robinson), Agnes (Mrs. Leo Bandura) both of Kincardine, Margaret (Mrs. Ross Bassett), Kathleen (Mrs. Roy Dolson), Sharon (Mrs. Harold Williams) of Toronto, Orland of Vancouver, Elwyn, Weston, Manitoba Glen Calvin, Wray, Monroe and Norval of Kincardine township; Karl of Listowel.

Also forty grand children and seven great grandchildren, one sister Mrs. Ellen White, nursing home, Lucknow, and was predeceased by one son Eric.

The funeral services were held at 3 P.M. Saturday, Dec. 12, 1961, from the MacKenzie and McCrea funeral home with Rev. Peter Townsend officiating. His favorite hymn, The Ninety and Nine, was sung by Norman Dunsiger.

Pallbearers were his grandchildren Mark McConnell, Allan Robinson, Wayne McConnell, Gregory McConnell, Stephen McConnell.

Flower bearers were his granddaughters Brenda Needham and Julie McConnell.

Zion United Church and the UCW and was active in Zion community affairs. She and her husband farmed in North Harbour Township until their retirement.

She was a graduate teacher from the Bradford Normal School and taught at the Ramona Public School in South Huron.

She had been a resident of the St. Andrews Residence in Chatham for the past year. The funeral was held Wednesday, December 9, 1961, at the J.L. Ford Funeral Home in Chatham with Rev. Elizabeth Chapman of the Zion United Church officiating.

Born in Kincardine, she was the daughter of Alexander Fair and Ann Stanley, both deceased.

She married Deville Whittington who predeceased her in 1979.

She is survived by one daughter Jean (Mrs. Albert Colwell) of Kincardine, three sons William A. Whittington of RR 3 Chatham, Richard L. Whittington of Chatham and Jack Whittington of Toronto. Also by eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

She was predeceased by three sisters, Pearl (Mrs. Otto Hewitt) of London, Elizabeth (Mrs. Walter Bell) of Peterborough, Doris (Mrs. Edgar Applebyard) of Kincardine, and one brother, Stanley Fair of Kincardine.

She was predeceased by two sisters, Wenzlida Fair and Lucretia (Mrs. Cliff Hewitt) and one brother Gordon Fair.

She was a member of the Zion United Church and the UCW and was active in Zion community affairs. She and her husband farmed in North Harbour Township until their retirement.

She was a graduate teacher from the Bradford Normal School and taught at the Ramona Public School in South Huron.

She had been a resident of the St. Andrews Residence in Chatham for the past year. The funeral was held Wednesday, December 9, 1961, at the J.L. Ford Funeral Home in Chatham with Rev. Elizabeth Chapman of the Zion United Church officiating.

Born in Kincardine, she was the last surviving family member of William Henry Thompson and Margaret Emily Stanley.

He was the beloved husband of Clara Martin, father of Alvin, R.R. Z. Kincardine, and daughter Bernice Norma, R.R. 5, Kincardine. Also survived by 10 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. He was predeceased by one brother Walter and half-brother Robert;

Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Blenheim.

STANLEY SANFIELD THOMPSON

Stanley Sanfield Thompson of Kincardine township died in his 80th year at the Southampton Nursing Home on Jan. 24, 1961.

Born in 1881, he was the last surviving family member of William Henry Thompson and Margaret Emily Stanley.

He was the beloved husband of Clara Martin, father of Alvin, R.R. Z. Kincardine, and daughter Bernice Norma, R.R. 5, Kincardine. Also survived by 10 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. He was predeceased by one brother Walter and half-brother Robert; sisters Clara, Isabelle, Violet and great grandson, Jason. He served as a township councillor 1950-51 and reeve for three years later as Bruce Ward warden for 13 years.

Funeral and committal services for Stan Thompson were conducted at the Davey-Linklater Funeral Home on Sunday, Jan. 26.

The pallbearers were honorary pallbearers.

Spring interment in Kincardine cemetery.

Stan and Clara celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary at the Southampton Nursing Home on Nov. 1.

Along with her husband, she is survived by one son Wayne of Hillside, one daughter Lee (Mrs. Frank Martin) of Cambridge, and two grand daughters Terry and Shannon Martin. One infant daughter predeceased her in 1947.

She had two brothers John Doupe, of Brudenell Haven, Walkerton, Kirke Doupe, of Willowdale, and two sisters Dorothy (Mrs. Fred Lester) Hanover, and Marjorie (Mrs. Les Shippy) of Millerton. She also had several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her parents and one brother Ivan Doupe in June, 1960.

The funeral was held in Cambridge on Wednesday, June 16, 1960, at 11:00 am with Rev. Hindry officiating.

Interment in Kincardine Cemetery.

DANIEL NELSON NICHOLSON

Daniel Nelson Nicholson of Lucknow passed away in Wingham and District Hospital on Tuesday, January 22, 1960, in his 90th year.

Born January 22, 1870, in Kincardine Township, he was the son of the late Alexander Nicholson and Christina McVicar.

A baker by trade, he worked in Ripley and Kincardine until 1895 when he joined the 80th Battalion. He served overseas for three years, one year with the 78th Winnipeg Grenadiers in the front line trenches in Western Europe until Armistice was signed.

On June 9, 1896, he married Alberta Jane Miller of Kincardine, whom they farmed for three years west of Kincardine then west of Lucknow until 1907 when they returned to Lucknow.

He was a member of the Lucknow Presbyterian Church, Lucknow Legion Branch 309 and a founding member of the Lucknow United Farmers organization.

He was predeceased by his wife in December, 1978, six brothers and two sisters. Although hospitalized for the past four months, he always enjoyed his visits with his family and friends.

Surviving are four daughters Isabel (Mrs. Jim Hartman) of Lucknow, Margaret (Mrs. Lorrie Richter) of Huron Township, Donald (Mrs. Bill Smith) of Seaford, Marion (Mrs. Don Gillespie) of Kincardine and one son Ken of Shelburne.

He is survived by 12 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

A Legion service was conducted Wednesday evening and the funeral service on Thursday, January 23 from the MacLean-McCreath Funeral Home in Lucknow with Rev. Alison Ramsey and Rev. William Henderson conducting the service.

Honorary pallbearers were grandsons Allan, David and Wayne Nicholson, Bob Smith, Ron Gillespie, Jack Miller and Jack Henderson.

Spring interment will be in Kincardine Cemetery.

The funeral services were held at 3 P.M. Saturday, Dec. 12, 1961, from the MacKenzie and McCrea funeral home with Rev. Peter Townsend officiating.

His favorite hymn, The Ninety and Nine, was sung by Norman Dunsiger.

Pallbearers were his grandchildren

Mark McConnell, Allan Robinson, Wayne McConnell, Gregory McConnell, Stephen McConnell.

Flower bearers were his granddaughters Brenda Needham and Julie McConnell.

Zion United Church and the UCW and was active in Zion community affairs. She and her husband farmed in North Harbour Township until their retirement.

She was a graduate teacher from the Bradford Normal School and taught at the Ramona Public School in South Huron.

She had been a resident of the St. Andrews Residence in Chatham for the past year. The funeral was held Wednesday, December 9, 1961, at the J.L. Ford Funeral Home in Chatham with Rev. Elizabeth Chapman of the Zion United Church officiating.

Born in Kincardine, she was the last surviving family member of William Henry Thompson and Margaret Emily Stanley.

He was the beloved husband of Clara Martin, father of Alvin, R.R. Z. Kincardine, and daughter Bernice Norma, R.R. 5, Kincardine. Also survived by 10 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. He was predeceased by one brother Walter and half-brother Robert;

sisters Clara, Isabelle, Violet and great grandson, Jason. He served as a township councillor 1950-51 and reeve for three years later as Bruce Ward warden for 13 years.

Funeral and committal services for Stan Thompson were conducted at the Davey-Linklater Funeral Home on Sunday, Jan. 26.

The pallbearers were honorary pallbearers.

Spring interment in Kincardine cemetery.

GEORGE THOMAS HARKNESS

George Thomas Harkness of R.R. 4, Kincardine died June 22, 1962 in the Kincardine and District General Hospital as a result of a heart attack.

Born in Teeswater March 21, 1905, he was the son of James Harkness and Mary Morton of Durham.

He married Margaret Grimby in Teeswater on Nov. 10, 1936 where the couple resided until 1957. In 1957 they moved the farm on the Kincardine-Huron Road which had been owned by his parents since 1924, they sold the farm and moved to Brudenell.

Mr. Harkness was then a carpenter and a stonemason and built many stone gateposts in the surrounding communities.

Besides his wife, he is survived by some of Fortescue, Kan. of Fort St. John and Don of Fort Nelson, British Columbia.

He was the son of James and Mary Huber of Teeswater; Mary, Mrs. Paul Fischer of Teeswater, Edna, Mrs. Richard Huber of Neustadt; brothers Melford of Teeswater, James of R.R. 1, Kincardine and Gordon of Parkhill; sisters Bertha, Mrs. Joe Struthers of Teeswater; Nellie, Mrs. John Reid of Hanmer; Isa, Mrs. David Ireland of Brudenell; and one brother, Tom of Brudenell.

He was predeceased by his wife, Mary, in 1943.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his mother, Mary, his sons, Glen, Gary and Greg, all of Huron, Ontario; Bonnie, at home, one brother, Ralph of RR 1, St. Andrews West; four sisters, Maureen, Mrs. Larry Bradley of Cornwall, Norma, Mrs. Ron Dench of Cornwall, Sharon, Terry Goral of Motilola and Pat of Teeswater.

He was predeceased by his father in 1972, brother Bernie in 1978 and sister Lois in 1987.

Father Curtis conducted the funeral service, 17, 1988 at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church.

Pallbearers were Larry Moulton,

Harold Steiner, Harold Higton,

Terry Goral, Bert Thompson and Bill Geddes.

Interment Kincardine Cemetery.

ALLAN RODERICK McDONELL

Allan Rodger McDonald of R.R. 4, Kincardine died Jan. 14, 1960 in Berlin.

Born Sept. 29, 1943 in Greenfield, Ont., he was the son of Duncan B. McDonald and Mary McDonald.

He married Jackie Bushell in Berlin Sept. 24, 1965.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his mother, Mary, his sons, Glen,

Gary and Greg, all of Huron, Ontario;

Bonnie, at home, one brother,

Ralph of RR 1, St. Andrews West;

four sisters, Maureen, Mrs. Larry

Bradley of Cornwall, Norma, Mrs.

Ron Dench of Cornwall, Sharon,

Terry Goral of Motilola and Pat of Teeswater.

He was predeceased by his father in 1972, brother Bernie in 1978 and sister Lois in 1987.

Father Curtis conducted the funeral service, 17, 1988 at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church.

Pallbearers were Larry Moulton,

Harold Steiner, Harold Higton,

Terry Goral, Bert Thompson and Bill Geddes.

Interment Kincardine Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Ewlyn Campbell,

Glen McConnell, Gavin McConnell,

Wayne McConnell, Maybelle McConnell and Nervyl McConnell.

Interment in Kincardine Cemetery.