50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norman of RR 5 Kincardine celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday with a dinner with family and friends at the Bruce Inn.

Reverend Angus Steart Smith, now of Severn Falls, married the couple on April 16, 1924 at the home of the bride's parents on the north line. Mrs. Norman is the former Annie MacIntosh.

The two lifetime Kincardine Township residents farmed until 1949 when they moved to Kincardine. The couple ran the Royal Apartments for a number of years before they retired to their home on Queen St. just past the town limits.

The couple's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Norman, held open house Sunday afternoon and evening for friends and relatives. Another son, Jack, predeceased Mr. and Mrs. Norman. The Normans have five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Three brothers of Mr. Norman, Cecil, Lawrence and Earl, were on hand for the celebration as was Minnie Ferrier, a sister of Mrs. Norman.

Congratulations were received from Prime Minister Trudeau, Governor General Leger, Premier Davis and MPP Murray Gaunt.
