

EBECA HICKS of Kincardine celebrated her 80th birthday January 19. Mrs. Hicks was born on the North Kincardine Township to Mr. and William Evans. She and her husband George have two children, of Sarnia and Ron of Edmonton as well as two grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Friends and relatives of Mrs. Hicks helped celebrate her birthday with a surprise party. (Bev Clark Photo)

AUGUST 12, 1981

Farrells celebrate 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farrell

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farrell celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on November 19, 1982. They spent the day at home with a few close relatives and friends dropping in to help them celebrate. As Mr. Farrell had spent a week in the hospital recently, they were unable to have open house at this time. They received many beautiful cards and gifts from their many friends.

They were married on November 19, 1932 at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Taylor on Highway 21 north of Kincardine. Mr. Lloyd Farrell, brother of the groom and Miss Clara Norman signed the register with Rev. T. D. McCullough officiating. They farmed on the South Line until 1967 when they moved to Kincardine where they lived on Huron Terrace until 1971 when they returned to the country where they now reside on Highway 9. They have one daughter, Janet, Mrs. Wayne Palmateer, and two grandsons, Jeff and Craig.

ON SATURDAY EVENING, July 11, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Teskey's family entertained relatives at a dinner held in honor of their parents 50th wedding anniversary. Among those present from a distance were John's brother William J. and his wife Doreen of Collingwood. On Sunday afternoon their daughter Anne and daughter-in-law Lyzane served tea to neighbours, friends and relatives, assisted by grand-daughter Leslie. Married July 11, 1931, by Rev. Ryerson Young, the couple resided in Collingwood until 1948, when they moved to Kincardine with their two children Anne (Mrs. Murray A. Batte) of Winnipeg and John J. Teskey of Kincardine Township. They have six grandchildren, Leslie, Catherine, and Gregory Batte, and Mark, Stephen and Jena Leanne Teskey.