

EUTHA CULBERT, Minnie Lock and Adelene Martyn Mrs. Culbert has been with the WI over 50 years while stand proudly behind the 75th anniversary cake of the Mrs. Martyn has been a member for 49 years. Mrs. Ripley Women's Institute. Lieutenant Governor Pauline McGibbon was at the Ripley United Church Lock, president of the Ripley WI was the organizer of the event. (Bev Clark Photo) last Wednesday to help the WI in its celebrations.

The Ripley WI held its 75th anniversary tea last Wednesday in the Legion Hall. Many of the ladies dressed up in early 20th century costume for the occasion; one of them was Mrs. Lohnes, right, shown here with the president of the Ripley WI, Mrs. Walter

Mrs. Grant Collins of R.R. 1, Kin-Mrs. Grant Cardine, is the recipient of the 1979
Bruce County Women's Institute Citibruce county wonline is minute cur-genship Award.

Mrs. Collins, who is very active in community work and the Pine River branch of the Women's Institute, re-ceived the Bruce County Tartan Award trophy and $300 when the Bruce County Collins receives WI citizenship WI rally was held in Armow award has the opportunity of nominating someone for the award.

Bruce McGillivray of the 12th of Bruce was the winner of the Agricultural award for Bruce County while Brian Thompson of R.R. 2, Kincardine hand for

гапу меедраш: and out of the church by 15-year-old aides-de-camp, Superintendent Fuller-ton of the OPP, and she was piped into throughout the visit by one of her immediately after the ceremonies were Having another engagement, the lieutenant-governor was forced to leave her husband, and expressed her appre-ciation of the gift in her name to the hospital.

Honour's address. She spoke on the role of the Crown in Canada, giving a brief history of the creation of the offices of Governor-General and lieutenant-governor and their present day functions. She noted that, in the five years she has been lieutenant-governor, she has signed 52,794 documents, made 589 visits to all parts of the province, spoken to 412 organizations, and welcomed 67,552 people at 828 receptions in the

A.) MacDonald, Mrs. Margaret Scott Mrs. Francis Gillies, Mrs. Mary (John Norma MacLennan, Mrs. Utha Culbert, Gemmell, Mrs. Violet MacKenzle, Mrs. icates, Heceiving these certificates were Mrs. Margaret members of the Ripley WI with certif-Kathy Nugent, and presented 40-year nor listened to a solo performed by After speaking, the lieutenant-gover-

2 fily personnel around her at all

Mrs. Margaret Gemmell, right, in charge of press relations for the Ripley Women's Institute, pins a corsage on Her Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, Pauline McGibbon. Mrs. Mc Gibbon was in Ripley to take part in the Women's Institute 75th anniversary celebration