

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR of Ontario, Pauline Governor was in Ripley last Wednesday to help the tennial 1984. Women's Instituted McGilbhon says anothese to Mindel. McGlbbon says goodbye to Minle Lock, president of Ripley Women's Institute celebrate its 75th an areencouraged to become involved the Ripley Women's Institute value of the Ripley Women's Institute shill her alde-de-camp, niversary. (Bev Clark Photo) Superintendent Fullerton looks on. The Lieutenant

Federated Women's Institute of Ontario annual meeting determination...know social issues and take action" said Mrs. R.B. Johnson of Cochrane. She is the first Provincial President from the Cochrane-Temiskaming area.

Mrs. Keith Hiepleh, president for the past three years conducted the business for the annual meet-ing in Toronto. Directors voted to send money to the Nutrition Project in India, and to the "Workshops for Women" in the Cameroons, Scholarships had been presented to students across the province with the McKercher scholarship going to Donna Joan McDonald. Mrs. Duane Williams of Camden East was elected as the treasurer, public relations officer is Mrs. George Cunningham of Consecon and Tweedsmuir Curator Mrs. Ian Heales of Campbellford. Mrs. Clarence Diamond led the sessions on resolutions recurrent concerns e.g. weapons, to permit use of heroin for terminally ill, support of shel-ters for battered women, and recycling of pop cans to prevent waste Joyce Canning, rural organization co-ordinator, informed the members that the ministry would be presenting "Rural Seminars for VItal People" throughout the province in February and March with the theme being "Communica-

The Junior Women's Institute Ine Junior women's Institute chose as their Bicentennial project to have 22 Maple trees planted near the Women's Institute Hall at the Ontario Agricultural Museum at Milton. They donated money to the Ontario Agricultural Museum at Milton. They donated money to the World Project "Fresh Water for All" and presented trophies to the Disabled at the Murderball Championships in Toronto, Hon, Dennis Timbrell, Minister of Agriculture and Food, address enlarged on the plans for the Bi-centennial. Historical farms are being recognized, history revived and plans made for the Queen's visit. Women's Institute members visit. Women's institute members across Ontario are making a quilted wall hanging depicting features of each area. This will be presented to the province to be hung in the management of the province to be hung in the Mrs. Harvey Nobilit of Ottawa. The President of the Federated Women's Institute of Canada, urged the women to study and know the important issues that know the important seuses that code, Canada Health sut, equality of employment, the damaging efof employment, the damaging ef-fects of the exploitation of women and children, sexual abuse and pornography.

The Officers Conference will be at Waterloo University May 1, 2, and 3, 1984 and the National Con-vention in Western University, London, in June, 1985.

Grey-Bruce director host FWIO distri

Mrs. Don MacAdam, Board Director of Grey Bruce Area Suba meeting with Executive District Officers of the Grey-Bruce area on Jan. 17. The purpose of the meeting to relate business of a Board Meeting F.W.I.O. in Toronto, which she had recently at-

Branches are urged to recognize actual celebration at the local level

actual celebration at the local seven with other organizations. Other notes are: branches are urged to use membership cards. R.S.V.P. seminars are to be or-ganized in Bruce and Grey Counties.

Scholarships for Grey Bruce area will be $200 in 1984. Branches are urged to support and promote.
Pennies for Friendship (A.C. W.W.) have increased, but there's the Board meeting, with nine sus-

Adelaide Hoodless Home are badly in need of funds.

ADDOT, president of the Ladies Auxiliary to Kincardine and District General Hospital, right, presents Grace Peet, president of the Ripley Women's Institute, left, with a certificate of appreciation acknowledging the institute's support of hos-pital activities since 1904 and especially the institute's cooperation with the auxiliary since 1966. Minnie Lock, the Wi's liaison with the auxiliary, looks on

The Ripley W.I. held a tea last Tuesday Winner of the quilt was Wanda Evans, R. R. atternoon at the Ripley Legion. Donelda 5. Kincardine. Helping hold up the quilt is McLean, president, made the draw for the 'Sadle McLeod, first vice president. quilt made by a class soonsered by the W.I.