Live, learn and laugh was theme at W I rally 1999

By Pat Calhoun
P.R.O. Bruce County District Women's Institute

Live, Learn and Laugh was the theme for the Women's Institute Rally at Tiverton Community Centre on Thurs., Oct. 28. Pinkerton W.I. held registration at 9 a.m. and Purple Grove served coffee and muffins.

The tables were tastefully decorated with pumpkins which were later sold at the auction by the Oliphant Branch.

The welcome was given by Park Head to the 132 members present.

Secretary Treasurer Doreen MacAdam read the minutes, new correspondence and financial statement. Roll call was answered by 35 branches, each donating $1. per member toward the Adelaide Hoodless Homestead.

The Tartan Committee report was given by Marie Hannell.

President Lois Freiberger reported that the Phone Buster presentations had been well attended throughout the county.

Marion Schlorff, museum representative, gave an excellent report on museum activities. Eighteen of the 35 branches have now taken out memberships to the museum.

Provincial Board Public Relations officer, Carol Helfenstein of R.R. #1, Kincardine introduced Gary Levin of Owen Sound. His topic was Walking Into the Computer Age.

Gary McGillivray of BMTS set up the computer and internet and Levine took us on a tour.

P.A.C. representative, Fran Farrell, gave a report from Provincial Board.

After a delicious lunch the afternoon session began with a sing song led by Purple Grove.

A bring and buy auction was held with each branch donating one item. Proceeds of approximately $300. will go to the Bruce County Museum, District P.R.O. Pat Calhoun was auctioneer.

As laughter was part of our theme today we really enjoyed the entertainment by Donna Ward and cow friends of the Purple Valley W.I. Humorous readings were given by Pat Porter of the new Lucknow Sepoy branch.

Linda Freiberger gave the courtesies for the day and the meeting adjourned.

The District Directors meeting will be held March 2, 2000 and Grey Bruce Area Convention Oct. 3, 2000 in Chesley.
