

1942,

Wm. Smiley
Edgars
Willis

Some came by boat from Owen Sound
Some overland from Owen Sound on foot and others by boat on Lake Huron to Southampton. Supplies were carried from Owen Sound.

The passenger pigeons had a rookery on the east side of the Wilson farm.
(Harvey Thomson is aware in 1965-66)