Institute Ode

A goodly thing it is to meet
In Friendship's Circle bright,
Where nothing stains the pleasure sweet
Nor dims the radiant light,
No unkind word our lips shall pass,
Nor envy sour the mind,
But each shall seek the common weal,
The good of all mankind.

PROGRAMMES

OF THE

Women's Institutes

IN THE

South Renfrew District

1946 - 1947

True friendship is a treasure great,
As such may we regard it,
May discord ne'er our W.I. intrude,
Nor anything retard it.
But let the song and toast go round,
Let every heart be mellow;
And may our motives still be found
In every true Women's Institute.

"I hope when History comes to be written it will be said of the Women's Institutes that they were one of the great unifying, and one of the great stabilizing factors in the Empire. That they did the best of things in the worst of times. — Lady Tweedsmuir 1937.
