The convention is in Chesley in September.

Eileen Ribey needs a second vice-president, urgently!

Our guest speaker was Ken Kelly, of the Bruce County Federation of Agriculture. His topic was "Stress Management for Farm Families." They need the participation of different organizations, places for public meetings and someone prepared to sit on an advisory committee for about two to three hours a month. He also spoke about the Grey Bruce Advisory Training Committee. It is for adult education and retraining. They need someone to sit on a sub-committee for women's issues, education and training, especially so the farm woman's needs are not overlooked.
