

June Sparling of Owen Sound made an impressive showing with her two entries, which won three prizes. First prize in the mixed media category, second prize for pieced work. She was also awarded for the most creative use of fabric.

Florence Wilhelm of Tavistock won first in the Applique division with her "Celtic" design.