

Dealy's Store, Stokes Bay - later owned by Doc McDonald, John McLennan, Malcolm and Murdock McIver. Burned down 1919. Occupied by McDonalds when this picture taken.

Road through Stokes Bay going North around 1910. Showing Dealy's store, up the road is the Yellow House built by Dan Smith (double house). Later used as a summer hotel and operated by Jack Barber and called the Rustic Inn. burned down while occupied by Mr. Barber. 1920's.
