The Echo in front page Editorial is trying to drum up interest in getting immigrants from England to take over the deserted farms on the Peninsula!

April: Berford Lake can boast of a tug now. The sawmill company having purchased one to draw rafts of logs from different points on the Lake to their mill.

Oct. 13, Fred Mack, Stokes Bay, gets the Echo prize for the tallest stock of corn, It measured 11 feet 6 1/2 inches.

Red squirrels are eating it around Lion's Head these days.
