

Mrs. Isobelle Underwood retired at the end of December after a lengthy teaching career in Saugeen Township and Port Elgin. She is shown above with three generations of the Snyder Family, all of whom are former pupils of hers. Mrs. Keith Snyder, the former Marguerite McKillop, attended school at S.S. #6, Saugeen, "Turners' School," where Mrs. Underwood began her teaching career. Shown also are Mrs. Snyder's son, Brian, and her grandson, Steven, who is a Grade 5 student at Port Elgin - Saugeen Central School.

Becky Colley and Devin McArthur had the honor of running the Olympic torch into the Port Elgin Saugeen Central Public School games, last week. The entire school got into the Olympic spirit, with students divided into teams representing different countries. Bruce County director of education, Paul Martindale, praised the students and teachers on their spirit of friendship, participation and friendship.

The family of Jim and Norma Underwood extend an invitation to all friends, relatives and neighbours to help them celebrate the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on February 6, 1988 at Port Elgin Legion Hall. Social time 7-9; dancing 9-1. Best wishes only.
