

SPRING 2002 - DISTRICT FUN NIGHT

participants - Marlene Schaly - body
 Marie Ingram - hands
 Irene Robillard - voice

The District "Fun Night" held in the Renfrew Collegiate cafeteria provided an evening of great food, fun and fellowship. Skills, poetry and songs entertained 70 members from 12 local branches. If you are interested in joining a vital "Women Involved" organization, call 432-6317 for further information.

Judy Campbell lightly greases the coffin for the Pillsbury Dough Boy funeral, a fun and pun-filled skit by the Balsam Hill WI during a recent fun night.

Two heads aren't always better than one, thinks Marlene Schaly who has her hands full trying to pour a coffee during the Burnstown WI presentation. A fellow WI member stood behind Schaly and provided the hand movements for a wide range of morning tasks from washing and brushing her teeth to putting on earrings.

Anita Schubrink, Amy Neill and Jessie Smith treated the audience to a hilarious re-make of the Elvis Presley classic Are You Lonesome Tonight?
