

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS ELLWOOD JEFFREY

Jeffrey-Johnston

In a recent evening ceremony in Trinity-St. Andrew's United Church Renfrew, Miss Maureen Mary Ellen Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Johnston, Castleford, be-

Rev. C. Gardner Ward officiated at the ceremony. Mr. Albert Stephen was organist and the soloist was Mr. Hilliard Argue who sang: "A Wedding Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You". Baskets of gladioli were used to decorate the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Erymal Juby as maid of honour. Mrs. Earle Hodgins and Mrs. William Johnston were bridesmaids. The three attendants were dressed alike in ballerina length strapless gowns of blue, pink and green lace and tulle, with matching lace boleros.

Mr. Pat Gemmill was best man and the ushers were Mr. Earle Hodgins and Mr. William Johnston.

For her marriage the bride chose a floor length gown of ivory Chantilly lace over taffeta. The bouffant skirt featured tiers of lace at the back which extended into a short train. The bodice was fashioned with a small collar and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands.

With this she wore a necklace and earrings of rhinestones and pearls came the bride of Mr. Thomas Ellwood Jeffery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Jeffery, Cobden.

The bride's mother wore a gown of mauve crepe and lace with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a gown of navy crepe and lace with dusty rose accessories and a corsage to match.

Later a reception was held at Bayview Pavilion, Cobden. Following the reception, the happy couple left on a motor trip to New York City and other points.

For travelling the bride wore a champagne dress trimmed with rhinestones and pearls, topped by a matching bolero. Green accessories and a corsage of bronze mums completed the ensemble.

Out of town guests were from Toronto, Kingston, Ottawa, North Bay, Sudbury and Arnprior.

Married In Scotland

Mr. and Mrs. James Ker Dundas are pictured outside Palmerston Place Church, Edinburgh, Scotland, following their marriage on September 15. Miss Dundas is the former Mina Isabel Early, daughter of James Early and the late Mrs. Early of Renfrew. The couple are pictured with Mona Fisher of Vancouver, B.C., who acted as bridesmaid, and groomsmen William Dundas, brother of the groom.
