

Miss Sandra Dawn Stokes wed to Mr. Brian Lee Ferguson

Miss Sandra Dawn Stokes, daughter of Mr and Mrs Wilbert Stokes of Douglas, and Mr Brian Lee Ferguson, son of Mr and Mrs Donald Ferguson Jr of Castleford, were married in Calvary Pentecostal Church on August 28, 1965 by Rev S S O'Brien. White and mauve gladioli decorated the church for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie fashioned on Empire lines with round neck edged with lace applique and long, tapered sleeves. The skirt fell in deep folds and her lace train was held with a bow. A pearl tiara held her finger-tip veil in place and she carried a lace-covered white Bible adorned with red sweet-heart roses and lily of the valley.

Attending the bride were Miss Sally Tough as maid of honor and Miss Sharon Crozier and Miss Marilyn Dennison as bridesmaids. They wore floor-length gowns of mauve satin peau de soie with high Empire waistlines and the deep folds of the skirts extending to chapel trains. Matching headpieces held their fly-away veils and they carried white carnations tipped with mauve.

Mr Dillon Kensley attended the groom and Mr Gordon Stokes and Mr Allan Ferguson were ushers. Mrs S S O'Brien was organist and Miss Hilda Payne sang during the ceremony.

Welcoming guests at a reception at the Legion Hall, the mother of the bride wore a blue crepe dress with white accessories. The mother of the groom wore a jade green silk dress with white accessories.

Mr and Mrs Ferguson, who will live in Sudbury, left for a wedding trip to Northern Ontario. The bride wore a pink knitted wool suit with white accessories and corsage of white gardenias.
