

Bob Johnston, who worked on the construction of the plaque to mark the beginning of the Opeongo Line at Farrell's Landing in Castleford, his daughter Jenny and wife Julie entertained guests with a musical program at the Sportsplex following the dedication last Saturday afternoon.