

From the Old Files

by Olga Lewis

SOLDIERS KILLED AT BRUNO TRAINING CENTR INCLUDE CASTLEFORD SON: Private Glenn Johnston, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnston of Castleford and Ottawa, and Pte. G.D. Junop, of Pembroke, were among the nine soldiers killed by a mortar bomb that exploded at Mount Bruno training center Que., on Thursday. Nine Ottawa District and Northern Ontario men were among the 36 injured by the blast.

JULY 30, 1964

RENFREW FOOTBALLERS AT OTTAWA TRYOUTS: Five Renfrew footballers, all from R.C.I.'s Raiders, went down to Ottawa Tuesday, to try out for the Gatineau Lyons of the Junior Inter-provincial League. They are "Chummy" Welch, this year's best senior lineman who plays linebacker, R.A. Jamieson, a half-back who was good enough for a trial with the Rough Riders in addition to being voted best backfielder on last season's senior squad, Murray Humphries, a former recipient of the best backfielder award, Ed Hanson, an end, and Frank Latendresse, a big tackle.

Horton Township residents Marjorie Dale Shaw and her brother, Gerry Mullen, are part of the crowd that waits for the impending start of a Saturday evening of music. The occasion was the 10th annual Valley Bluegrass Festival in their home township. July 2004 Mercury photos by STEVE NEWMAN