

March 22/05 Mercury photo by KATIE SKERKOWSKI

Heavenly Escapes, angel gift shop and centre of complimentary therapies, opens today. The shop, owned by registered practical nurse Sandra Johnston, is located beside the Bank of Montreal. Johnston and her daughter Jennifer stand beside some of the angel products available.

March 25/05

This week's Roving Camera winner is Dwaine Johnston from Valley Bytes.

Please pick up your Gift Certificate to the Hungry Hare Restaurant at The Mercury office before next Friday.

Thanks, Dwaine!

BIRTHS

TREMBLAY/HUMPHRIES

Todd and Emily are thrilled to announce the safe arrival of their first child, Mikayla Kennedy. She was born March 25 weighing 8lb 8oz. Proud first time grandparents are Doug and Susan Humphries of London and Don and Diane Tremblay of Sault Ste Marie. Todd, Emily and Mikayla have recently moved from Fort McMurray Alberta to Sault Ste. Marie Ontario.

March 22/05 Tasha Eady is national junior wrestling champ

Tasha Eady is off to the World Wrestling championship.

Renfrew's Tasha Eady of Lakehead University in Thunder Bay wrestled her way to the 59-kilogram title at the Canadian Junior Wrestling Championships in Regina, Saskatchewan March 18-20.

Eady outwrestled a field of 14 competitors — the largest female weight class — to become the Renfrew Amateur Wrestling Club's first National Junior Champion.

A graduate of Renfrew Collegiate Institute, Eady now heads to France May 21-28 for a training camp before competing at the World Wrestling Championship in Lithuania July 5-10.

The Town of Renfrew will have an opportunity to show its support for Eady.

She'll be competing at the 2005 National Freestyler and Greco Roman Wrestling Championships May 13-15 at the Ma-Te-Way Activity Centre.