

Awards

Award of Merit from American Association for local History for initiating of Tweedsmuir Histories; the Henry Marshall Tory Award for Adult Education; "The Beaver Pelt" by the Canadian Citizenship Council for service in the field of citizenship; Certificate of Merit for contribution to local History in Canada.

Did you know?

- that F.W.I.C. support a garden area and picnic nook in the International Peace Gardens?
- that the F.W.I.C. purchased and furnished the Adelaide Hoodless Homestead at St. George, Ontario, and maintain it as an historic site?
- that the F.W.I.C. has initiated studies and prepared submissions on nutrition, status of women, radio programmes, and food prices?

- that F.W.I.C., through its International affiliate, A.C.W.W., has contributed to the Unesco Gift Coupon Plans to establish 25 Training Centres in Ceylon, set up Adult Education programmes in Northern Canada, provided a van for the Lesotho Homemakers, assisted in bringing young people from Northern Canada to National 4-H Conferences, established a centre in Columbia, and aided nutrition education programmes in developing nations?
- that F.W.I.C. planted Adelaide Hoodless roses in Peace Gardens as a salute to member organizations in U.S.A. during their bicentennial year?

Publications

Adelaide Hoodless - Woman With a Vision
F.W.I.C. History
Heritage of Canadian Handicrafts
Into The North
Federated News (quarterly)
Slides, tapes and supplies available from the National Office.
Tweedsmuir & Citizenship Competitions conducted each triennium.

Achievements