

man-made Beef barbque and people come from miles around to enjoy the good food and entertainment.

The rural routes of Dobbinton are now served out of Tara and people in Dobbinton get their mail at a locked box in the middle of the hamlet.

The information for this write-up was taken for the History of Elderslie written in 1977.