Aids Baby Refugees

1958

The March meeting of the Dobbinton Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Slumskie. There were 13 members present. The meeting opened by all members repeating the Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. The Roll Call was answered by each member paying a penny for each year they had been married. The minutes were read and also the financial report by Mrs. Elmer Walker. The correspondence was read and a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mrs. Carman Kingston and Mrs. Ken Farrow was appointed. Mrs. J. MacQueen read a poem and a paper on "Health" and gave some sewing and cooking hints. The articles for a Talent Table were sold and proceeds amounted to $2.75. The clothing for the Arab Baby Refugee Fund was handed in to be sent away. The committee in charge, Mrs. Joe Thompson and Mrs. Allen Farrow, served lunch
