Edengrove-Cargill WI hears of NYC trip ²⁰⁰⁸

The Edengrove-Cargill Womens' Institute met at the home of Maxine Zettler on Jan. 17 at 8 p.m.

Marian Kuntz welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Maxine Zettler read the minutes from the last two meetings as well as the correspondence.

The treasurer's report was given by Michelle Phillippi. A motion was made to donate to CDCF building fund, Brockton and Area Medical Clinic and the Little Royal Fair school division.

Roll call was "do you have a passport?" It was answered by 12 members. The Meeting was then turned over to convenor Marion Chesney. She spoke on her bus trip to New York City. She had a little word game, and showed pictures and brochures and told stories of her adventure. Jessica Phillippi spoke of her upcoming school trip to Egypt in March of 2009 with Walkerton District Secondary School.

Lunch was served by Maxine Zettler and Carolyn Abell.

The next meeting will be Feb. 7 at the home of Marion Chesney.
