LASTING PROSPERITY IS PREDICTED BY FORD

Believes Business Would Be Better Without Tariffs

DETROIT, Dec. 3.—Henry Ford foresees the coming of "real prosperity" — not "feverish, speculative, false prosperity, but real prosperity such as you can keep."

In his opinion it will be such as "to make all previous prosperity look small."

He does not look for "recovery" but for something better, and he hopes "we don't recover the old system" with a "bigger and better panic in say 1940."

Incidentally he expressed the view that business men would be better off if there were no tariffs anywhere.

We have quit looking for Santa Claus, he says.

We have quit waiting for miracles.

We are ready to go to work.

We are making progress.

"If we quit waiting for miracles to happen that is a long step forward," he told the press. "I am sure we are making progress, and progress is always painful. We are all wiser men and women than we were and we are going to make better use of the next decade. If you want my opinion ten years from now there will be much real prosperity — I do not mean feverish, speculative false prosperity; but real prosperity such as you can keep, such as to make all previous prosperity look small."

OLD PIONEERS OF ALLENFORD MARK
THEIR BIRTHDAYS

Mrs. T. Asken, S. A. Hunt, in
Eighties—Mrs. T.
1936 Aiken Is 93 1936

ALLENFORD, Feb. 21—Birthday congratulations are being showered profusely this month on several of the pioneers of this community. On Thursday, February 6 Mrs. Thomas Askin celebrated her eighty-second birthday at the home of her son, Mr. Will Askin and Mrs. Askin. The little son of the house, Master Jack, helped Grandma to celebrate by having his fourth birthday also on February 6.

Mrs. Askin who makes her home with her son Charles in Consul, Sask., left there November 12th and visited relatives in the United States, also Sault Ste Marie, Toronto and Woodstock, finally arriving here January 15th, which is quite a record for a lady who was almost eighty-two years young. Mrs. Charles Donnan and Mr. Duncan MacKinnon of Allenford are a sister and brother of Mrs. Askin. Mrs. Askin expects to return to Saskatchewan again in March. Her many friends in this district wish her continued health and strength and hope she may visit here again before many years.

Mr. S. A. Hunt also celebrated his birthday on Tuesday, February 17, when he reached the eighty-fifth milestone. He spent the day in Wlarton with his brother, Mr. Joseph Hunt and Mrs. Hunt.

Mr. Hunt is one of the real pioneers of Bruce County and tells many interesting stories of the early days. He enjoys splendid health and is much interested in current events of both local and world-wide affairs. Every Sunday sees him in his place in the United Church. Along with his family, his many friends and neighbors add their heartiest congratulations and good wishes for his continued good health and strength.

Mrs. Thomas Aiken attains the splendid age of ninety-three years on February 22, and in the picture we see Mrs. Aiken and her little year old great-grand-daughter, Margaret Anne Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orace Miller.

Mrs. Aiken enjoys fairly good health and greatly enjoys a visit with old friends and neighbors. She is celebrating her birthday with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Miller and Mr. Miller at their home just east of the Village of Allenford.
