

MRS. A. F. MILLER PASSES FRIDAY

Well Known Resident of Arran Passes Away at Meaford

(Special to The Sun-Times)
MEAFORD, March 28—The death occurred early Friday morning of Mrs. Frank Miller, who had been in ill-health for a number of years past. Deceased, a native of Arran Township, where she had resided practically all her life, had been visiting her brother, Mr. David Matchett, for the past six months and it was at his home on Lombard street here that her death occurred.

Deceased, who was 51 years of age, leaves to mourn her passing her sorrowing husband, residing at Tara, one daughter, Norma, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. John Fletcher of Killarney and Mrs. Fred Mollet of Arran, besides her brother, Mr. David Matchett of this town. Another brother predeceased her a few years ago.

The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon, with a service at her former residence in Arran Township at 2.30 p.m. Interment will be made in Tara Cemetery.

TARA

MRS. RICHARD EVENS DIED VERY SUDDENLY

Well Known Arran Lady Was Taken Suddenly Wednesday

TARA, Oct. 24.—The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Evens wife of Mr. Richard John Evens of Arran township and mother of Mrs. Irwin Robinson of Chesley and Mrs. Howard Newton, of Arran, occurred at her home about eleven o'clock on Wednesday morning the 23rd of October, 1929.

Mrs. Evens had not been in the best of health for the past year, but her condition had somewhat improved during the summer and at the time of the fatal seizure, she was directing and assisting in the affairs of her household.

She was Amelia Beatrice, youngest child of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, of Allentford and was born on December 22, 1873. She was united in marriage to Mr. Richard J. Evens 34 years ago and since that time the family lived for fourteen years at Park Head and the past twenty, on the 6th concession Arran township.

She was a valued, useful and highly esteemed member in the community taking an active part over many years in church and social affairs, including the W. M. S. of the United Church and the Women's Institute. Her loss will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

Besides her husband and daughters, she is survived by her two sisters, Mrs. R. H. Fenton, of Port Elgin and Mrs. C. J. Harris of Vanguard, Sask.; two brothers, Mr. Edward Cox of Arran, and Mr. Wm. Cox, of Buffalo. The funeral will be held from the family residence on Friday the 25th inst at 2.30 p. m. The service will be conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Chas. Hackett of the United Church of which Mrs. Evens had been a life long member.

Born

NELSON—In Allentford, on Sunday, Jan. 29th, 1928, to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nelson of Allentford, a daughter, Marion Alma.

RICE—At Massey, on Tuesday, Jan. 31, 1928, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rice, a son.

CAMPBELL—In Sullivan, on Wednesday, Feb. 1st, 1928, to Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Campbell, a daughter.

Died

NELSON—In Allentford, on Tuesday, Jan. 31st, Marion Alma Nelson, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nelson, of Allentford. Funeral will take place on Wednesday, Feb. 1st, at 2 p.m., to Southampton cemetery.

THOS. C. POWELL PASSES THURSDAY

Well Known Resident of Southampton Dies in Owen Sound Hospital

(Special to The Sun-Times)
SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 4—Many friends here learned with deep regret of the death of Mr. Thomas C. Powell, who passed away on Thursday at the Owen Sound G. and M. Hospital, after a brief illness. He was taken ill on July 26 and was removed to the Owen Sound Hospital of Aug. 2, dying the following day.

Deceased was born on July 10, 1868, in Arran Township and lived on the farm there with his parents until his marriage in 1895 to Miss A. Nicholson of Arran. The young couple moved to Allentford, where Mr. Powell was a grain buyer. Thirty years ago they moved to Southampton and Mr. Powell set up a butcher shop here. In 1914 they left this town and resided at Detroit, Windsor and Toronto, returning to Southampton in August of 1920, when Mr. Powell again set up a butcher shop here.

Surviving to mourn his passing are his wife, his mother, Mrs. E. Powell of Southampton, one son, William, of Detroit, three daughters, Mrs. L. Potter of Hackensack, N.J., Mrs. J. C. Holley of Detroit and Mrs. G. Beer of Windsor, three brothers, Rev. P. Powell of Owen, Wis., Mr. Hilton Powell of Detroit and Rev. O. Powell of Hamilton; three sisters, Mrs. J. King of Detroit, Mrs. R. B. Hilmer of Southampton and Mrs. W. J. White of Hensall, and six grandchildren.

The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon with a service at his late residence at 2.30 p.m. Rev. G. Nicoll will have charge of the service and he will be assisted by Rev. E. Newman. The Masonic and L.O.O.F. lodges, both of which he was a member will also take part in the funeral rites. Interment will be made in Southampton Cemetery.

MRS. GEORGE SCOTT PASSES ON SUNDAY

Arran Resident Passes Four Days After Death of Husband

TARA, March 27.—The community was painfully shocked and grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. George W. Scott which occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Blakely, Arran Township, on Sunday morning in her 48th year. Her passing is particularly sad in view of the death of her husband last Wednesday. Mrs. Scott took ill on Thursday but despite careful attention she passed away Sunday.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blakely of Arran township, where she lived and continued to reside following her marriage to Mr. George Scott 22 years ago. She was well and favorably known and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends who deplore her untimely death under such circumstances.

She was a member of the United Church. Surviving are her parents and three brothers, John of Victoria, B. C., Arthur of Irma, Alta., and Lorne at home. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon pending the arrival of relatives from the West.

IN MEMORIAM

GREXTON—In loving memory of William F. Greston, who passed away May 10, 1922.

As life goes on, the living tread
Its way; while you, the mourned for dead,

Now rest.

In flesh deceased, yet present here
In soul; every guiding, year by year,
Our fate.

Two years depart, our thoughts are
Of you; no other one can fill
Your place.

—His loving wife and family.

TARA

JAMES COLEMAN IS LAID TO REST

Second White Child Born in Owen Sound—Funeral was Held Friday

TARA, Oct. 14.—The funeral of the late Mr. James M. Coleman took place from his late residence, lot 32, in the fourth con. of the Township of Arran, on Friday afternoon. The Rev. Rural Dean Murphy, B.A., officiated, interment being made in Tara cemetery.

The Royal Black Preceptory and the L.O.L. were largely represented, and solemnized the rites and ceremonies of their Orders at the graveside. The ladies of the L.O. B.A. of Tara and the True Blues of Arkwright were also present to pay their respect to the memory of the deceased.

Right Worshipful Joseph Carson, of London, Grand Master of Ontario West, of the Royal Black Knights of Ireland, represented the Grand Lodge.

The pall bearers were, Members of the Black Chapter Mr. Louis Palmer, Mr. Abraham Johnson and Mr. Alex. Vance, and of the L.O.L., Mr. Wm. Baux, Mr. Eldon Nicholson and Mr. Samuel McMullen.

The flowers were from the Family, the L.O.L., Black Preceptory, L.O.B.A.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coleman, Sarnia; Knox Presbyterian church, Tara; Mr. and Mrs. John Prescott, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baux.

The friends from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCurdy, Tottenham; Mr. George Hayes and son Wilmot, of Beeton; Mrs. John Lilly and son, Mr. Douglas Lilly, Mrs. Andrew Scott, of Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Colin Campbell, Toronto; Mr. Thomas Bridge and son Jack, Mrs. Bruin and Mrs. Bruin, Mr. Tackaberry, of Lion's Head; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Norris, of Wlarton; Mr. Clarence Fenton, Mrs. George Fenton, of Holstein; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fenton, Port Elgin, and Mr. and Mrs. George Craig of Paisley.

The funeral was very largely attended by a very wide circle of friends, testifying to the high esteem and affection in which the late Mr. Coleman was held in this community.

MRS. MCCULLOUGH DIED AT ALLENFORD

Well Known Resident of Amabel Was in Her 72nd Year

ALLENFORD, Jan. 17.—The death of Mrs. James G. McCullough of Allentford, occurred last night at her home here. She had been ill for about two months and her death was not unexpected although it was a great shock to her family and friends.

Mrs. McCullough was in her 72nd year when she died and had resided in Amabel township for the past fifty years. She was formerly Miss Margaret Anne Cruickshank. Surviving are her husband and five sons, James, Isaac, Wilbert, John and Stanley. Two daughters predeceased her, Ella, Mrs. Dave Rowe, and Myrtle. There are also two brothers, Wesley and William.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 2 p.m. from her late residence, with Rev. Wallace Johnston conducting the obsequies. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church. Interment will be made in Tara Cemetery.

In Memoriam

OLIVER—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Henry Oliver, who departed from life November 26, 1925.

Our mother is sleeping, so free from all pain,

With patience she suffered, we soothed her in vain,

Till God in his mercy,
Whispered the message, "Come Home."

—Daughter, Margaret.

MISS A. MCKINNON HAS PASSED AWAY

Death Takes Elderslie Woman After Illness of Few Months Jan. 8, 1931

There passed away after a few months of failing health, Miss Ann McKinnon at her home on the 12th concession of Elderslie. She deceased was ill only about two weeks. She was in her 74th year and was born in Halton county coming with her parents to the 12th of Elderslie west of Dobbinton where they have resided ever since.

The late Miss McKinnon was there as a very kind friend and neighbor and had a steadfast faith in the God she served. She was a member of the Baptist Church, Wilmot, WILLIS CROFT

She was predeceased by her father, Robert McKinnon, who died while the family was young and her mother who was an invalid for years and one brother, Duncan.

Those who survive her are Mrs. John Bell, of Dobbinton; Mrs. Donald McEachern, Edmonon, Miss Tena McKinnon, Toronto, sisters and Mr. John McKinnon of Dobbinton and Robert McKinnon at home.

The funeral service will be held at the house on the 17th line at 2 p.m. on Saturday afternoon Jan. 10. Interment will be in Salem Cemetery. Rev. Mason of Paisley will officiate.

MR. ROBT. HEARST PASSES IN WEST

Was Pioneer of Arran—Mrs. W. P. Evans a Sister

Another pioneer of Arran township in the person of Robert Hearst passed away in the West on November 13. The remains were taken to Neche, N.D., for burial beside his wife and two small sons.

The late Mr. Hearst was born in the township of Manvers on July 19, 1847. When eight years of age he came with his parents to the township of Arran, Bruce County, which was then almost a wilderness. There he spent his youth and manhood until the year 1898.

In 1877 he was married to Miss Sarah J. Wolfe, who died in 1895, leaving a family of six children, all of whom survive. In 1898 he removed with his family to North Dakota, near Neche, and in 1900 married Miss Maud Jamieson, who predeceased him in 1920. Since that time he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hunt, in Saskatchewan. Another daughter, Mrs. J. Hartz, resides at Cavalier, N. D., the sons are: W. A. of Spokane, Wash., R. S. of Portage, Wash., J. R., of Winnipeg, and S. I. of New Westminster. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Wilson of Tara, and Mrs. W. P. Evans of Owen Sound, and one brother, Sir William Hearst of Toronto.

LATE MR. GEO. SCOTT BURIED SATURDAY

TARA, March 28.—The funeral of the late Mr. George Wm. Scott, under the auspices of the Orange Order, of which he was a member, took place on Saturday afternoon, March 25, to Tara cemetery, from the home of his brother, Mr. Fred Scott, Arran Twp., and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives, neighbors and friends. The Rev. R. J. Murphy, R.D., B.A., of Christ Church, Tara, officiated. The following brethren of the Allentford and Arkwright lodges were pall bearers: Messrs. Thos. Crawford, Wm. Aiken, Jas. Miller, Albert Aiken, Thos. Thompson and Wm. Vance. Among the floral tributes were: a wreath, his wife, Mrs. Scott; pillow, brothers; wreath, Arkwright Orange Lodge and a spray from Miss Irene Atcheson, Toronto.