Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McIntosh are shown following the wedding February 22. The bride is the former Marion Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox of Warden. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McIntosh of Allanford. The young couple will reside in Tarn. 1974

McIntosh-Fox

Patrol men decorated the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marney McIntosh on Friday afternoon, when a quiet marriage ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Douglas McDonald.

The bride, Miss Marion Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox of Warden, chose for her wedding dress a floor length gown of white chiffon over tulle, featuring an Empire waistline and long, full sheer sleeves. The bride wore a pattern hat and carried a single red rose. The bride's attendant was Mrs. Marney McIntosh who is a similar gown in an orange shade and Mrs. McIntosh carried an orange rose.

The groom, Mr. Bruce McIntosh son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McIntosh of Allanford, was attended by his brother Murray.

After the ceremony the bridal party dined with Bruce's mother at the Southamptown morning home.

The wedding dinner was served at the Downtowner in Owen Sound, after which the young couple left for a trip to the Thousand Islands and points east. On their return they will reside in Tarn.

Shower for Marion Fox

A surprise bridal shower was held for Miss Marion Fox at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marney McIntosh on Thursday evening. Fifteen relatives gathered to share an evening of fun with the bride to be. Mrs. Brenda Lynde, former sister-in-law, presented the gifts on behalf of the group. Marion thanked each one for attending and for the lovely surprises. ***

Honour Retiring Teacher

July 1974

The staff of the Anne-Lene Elementary School with their families and wives met on Thursday evening, June 27, for a banquet and social evening to mark the close of the school year and to honour Mrs. Rena Mitchell who is retiring from teaching this year.

Mrs. Mitchell has been kindergarten teacher at the Anne-Lene Elementary School since the school opened in 1968. Prior to this she taught the junior classes at the Tarn Public School. She also has taught in one month schools at Collingwood, Elmhurst and the S.S. St. Bernice school where she began her teaching career. Mrs. Mitchell has completed more than twenty years of service in her profession. She is a past president of the Federation of Women Teachers of Bruce County.

Mrs. Mitchell has a family of two, John McClelland of Brantford and Marguerite James of Southborough. She has three grandsons. At the banquet, Wm. Stewart, principal of the school, expressed appreciation and good wishes to Mrs. Mitchell and a check for $500 was presented on behalf of the staff by Mrs. Shirley Hunt.

Winner of the Lucky Tuesday Draw held Tuesday, Feb. 26th, Mr. Melvin McLeod 1223, 6th Ave. West Owen Sound, receives a cheque for $340.00 from Mail Manager Mr. Dave Durrant. 1974
