

TO THE PEOPLE OF GREY—BRUCE MAY I INTRODUCE MYSELF

My family — My wife Yvonne and our 2 daughters Tami and Lisa.

I am a graduate of Elsinore Public School, Saugeen District High School and Ontario Agricultural College.

I was raised and worked in the family-owned General Store at Elsinore.

We own and operate a Dairy Farm and a Beef Cow-Calf enterprise at Elsinore.

I have served 7 years on Amabel Township Council, the last 3 years as Reeve.

Your vote and influence would be very much appreciated on Sept. 18.

Gary Harron

Progressive Conservative Candidate
Grey-Bruce

Aug. 1975

1975
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Harron of R.R. 2, Allenford, are pleased to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Colleen Lillian, to Murray James Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller of Allenford. The wedding will take place on September 27th at 4 p.m. in St. Paul's Anglican Church in Southampton.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gowanlock of Allenford are pleased to announce the engagement of their youngest Phyllis Ruth to Mr. Wayne Gordon Stevens of Sudbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Stevens of Iroquois Falls. Marriage to take place in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Southampton on October 18th, 1975. 8g

Recent Wedding White-Nelsim

In a setting of white snapdragons and red and white roses with lighted tapers, the wedding of Lynn Marie Nelson and Dave John White was solemnized in Christ Church Anglican, Tara, on Saturday, July 12th, 1975. Rev. Robert Bennett, Rector, officiated. Organist for the occasion was Mrs. Norman Bailey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Nelson, R.R.2 Allenford, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert White, R.R.2, Tara.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of quiana jersey, fashioned with stand-up collar, long sleeves, cummerbund and train. Lace detailed the gown and illusion veil which was held by a beaded lace cap. She carried red and white roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Miss Debbie Harron gowned in a yellow polyester dress designed with gathered bodice, A-line skirt and stand-up collar, and wore accessories to match. She carried white carnations.

Bridesmaids: Mrs. Doug Wood and Mrs. Mary Stewart, sister of the bride, wore peach shade and blue shade gowns, respectively. They each carried white carnations.

Groomsman was Mr. Clive Thomson, Toronto, and ushers were Mr. Donald White, brother of the groom, and Mr. Bill Stewart.

A reception was held at the Arran-Tara Elementary School, where the guests were received by the bride's mother gowned in a street-length dress of turquoise and white diagonal stripe. Her corsage was a white orchid. She was assisted by the groom's mother, wearing a pale blue polyester street-length dress and her corsage was a white orchid.

For a wedding trip to Eastern Canada, the bride chose a pant suit with white slacks and a checked blue top.

Mr. and Mrs. David J. White will reside in Tara.

Out-of-town guests were: the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Marie Potter of Picton; Mr. and Mrs.

Dennis Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peacock and Mr. Harold Peacock, all of Toronto.