The Elsinore Women's Institute meeting was held in the Community Centre on Wednesday evening with Mrs. David Kirkland as hostess. Guests for the evening were the Zion-Amabel, Tara and Arkwright Women's Institutes. The roll call was answered by the 56 members with interesting answers to "A good example is the best teacher. Name one!". The convenors reports were agriculture-even the plowing match needs power by Mrs. Messam; education-Why stay in school and a smile by Mrs. J. Kirkland; consumer affairs-Bargains! by Mrs. Cowin.

Mrs. Jack Kirkland was in charge of the program with Education as the theme. Mrs. Legg played for the singing of O Canada and Mrs. Kirkland read Making Friends. Mrs. Graham Chambers of the Zion Institute and who is also our provincial board member played selections on the mouthorgan. Mrs. Harold Simpson of Arkwright gave a reading of a Kindergarten teacher's first day; Mrs. Pearl Anderson of Sauble Beach sang He Lives and read a poem that she had composed; Mrs. Nelson Diebel of the Tara Institute read When the Cost is on the Pumpkin and the Shock is in the price and The Sorry Hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Thornburn of Port Elgin showed slides of their trip in the Caribbean area highlighted by Lindsay's comments. Mrs. R. Smith expressed appreciation and presented them with a gift. Lunch was served by the Elsinore ladies and a social time enjoyed. Each group expressed their appreciation for the program and the social enjoyment.
