

Elsinore

By Mrs. M Gowanlock

ELSINORE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEETING

Mrs. Angus McIntosh was hostess for the October meeting of the Elsinore Women's Institute on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Wm. Legg, assistant secretary read the minutes and Mrs. McIntosh gave the financial statement. The roll call was 'Your least liked household chore and from the answers given by the 13 members and four visitors present, washing windows seems to be the least popular task over dusting, sweeping, doing dishes, cleaning ovens and frigs, ironing and waxing floors.

Mrs. E. Messam and Mrs. Smith are to attend the Rally and Mrs. Gowanlock is the voting delegate to the Area Convention. Mrs. D. Kirkland gave the Motto "To make any easy thing look hard keep putting it off." The 2-min. convener's reports were - Agriculture 'An experience of a lifetime, by Brenda Trask; Dairy Princess - Mrs. Messam; Education - Mrs. J. Kirkland; Consumer Affairs - Mrs. Cowin; Family Affairs - Mrs. Cauka; Resolutions - Mrs. Patchell; Sunshine - Mrs. Smith; Hospital Aid - Mrs. McRae.

The white elephant draws were won by Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. H. Messam, Allenford, and Mrs. Irene Patchell. Mrs. Cowin convener for Consumers Affairs was in charge of the program of jokes by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Powell; Poems 'Just Between Friends' by Mrs. Messam. Ideas are funny things - Mrs. D. Kirkland, Moments in friendship by Mrs. Cowin.

Commercials on the TV Contests were enjoyed and a contest on cakes with prizes for the winners.

Lunch was served by Mrs. McIntosh assisted by Grace McIntosh and Mrs. Kirkland, Mrs. I. Fenwick helped supply the lunch but was unable to attend.

Elsinore

(by Mrs. M. Gowanlock)
W.I. MEET

The Elsinore Women's Institute held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Calvin Cooper on Wednesday evening. The President read an article 'Hyacinths for the Soul'. Mrs. McIntosh read the minutes of the last meeting and gave the financial statement. The roll call was "What you approve or disapprove of in modern advertisements." Many named certain commercials they thought tasteless, high-pressure selling of toys months before Christmas but praise was given for the weekly advertisements for comparative shopping.

Mrs. Messam and Mrs. Smith brought interesting reports from the Rally they attended. Mrs. Gowanlock gave report of the Area Convention. Ann Kelly's report was a very informative one and the Sun-Times is to be commended for the gift of their paper to delegates. The short reports were given by the conveners; Agriculture - The farmer's creed by Mrs. Messam; Education - How syrup made to disguise the bitter taste of medicine became coco cola by Mrs. J. Kirkland; Family Affairs Foster children by Mrs. Cauka; Resolutions - Make a resolution to be at the Plowing Match in Bruce County next year by Mrs. Patchell. Mrs. McRae reported on plans for the Hospital Bazaar and Mrs. Smith gave the Sunshine report and took up a collection.

Mrs. E. Dickinson gave some cooking hints. The White Elephant winners were Mrs. J. Kirkland, Mrs. D. Kirkland and Mrs. Legg. Mrs. J. Kirkland read the current events.

Mrs. Patchell was in charge of the program. Scripture was read by Mrs. Cooper. Readings by Mrs. Kirkland. A columnist writes on 'Men who snore and Mrs. Patchell read a paper on Resolutions and another on pets and people.

The meeting closed and Mrs. Cooper assisted by Mrs. Cauka served lunch.

Mrs. Gowan decorates cakes

Lorne Baux dies suddenly

Death came suddenly to Mr. Lorne Alvin Baux of Chippawa Hill near Southampton, on Sunday, November 23. He was well-known in Tara and area where he spent his boyhood days.

The late Mr. Baux had spent the past season sailing the Great Lakes on the boat "The Yankeeuck" which was docked at Sault Ste. Marie. He was found in his cabin room having died some time early Sunday morning. Deceased was 61 years of age.

Born in Arran Township in the year 1914, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Baux of Arran Township.

The late Mr. Baux was united in marriage to Miss Eleanor Lynn of Owen Sound, and the couple operate a general store at Chippawa Hill.

He was a member of the Anglican church, and also the Canadian Order of Forresters.

Surviving to mourn his children: Eleanor, are children: Gerald of Kincardine; Carl and William of Southampton; Linda (Mrs. Murray Wolfe) of Dobbinton; Betty Anne and Bonnie at home. Brother of Kathleen (Mrs. R.B. Maxwell) Toronto; Dr. Gordon Baux of Calgary, Alberta; Ada (Mrs. Tom Middleton) Tara.

The body rested at the Emke-Scarrow Funeral Chapel, Tara, until Thursday, November 27 at 2:00 p.m. when Rev. J. Walsh of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Southampton, was in charge of services.

Interment took place in Hillcrest Cemetery, Tara.