

The two Hereford bullocks, weighing about one ton each, showed visitors to the International Plowing Match how plowing used to be done. It was picturesque, but not quite as efficient as the farm equipment on display across the road.

Sun-Times photos by Bruce Rutherford

Motorists waited up to two hours to get into site Wednesday. Sept. 1976