Currie - McIntosh

Two arrangements of rose, pink and white flowers formed the setting in Tolmie Memorial Presbyterian Church, Port Elgin, on April 10, for the marriage of Grace Elizabeth McIntosh and James Frederick Currie. Grace is the daughter of Rae McIntosh, of Port Elgin, and the late Angus McIntosh, and Jim is the son of Catharine Currie, R.R. 1, Southampton, and the late Elgin Currie.

place her three quarter length veil. She carried a cascading bouquet of Easter lilies, pink roses and white stephanotis on a background of green leaves, striped with white.

Janice Seaborn was maid-of-honour and Vicki Fowler and Lois Fotherby were bridesmaids.

They all wore sleeveless, misty pink Jersey gowns, with blouson bodices and gathered skirt. A sheer printed blouse top with a stand up collar, long sleeves, ruffle at waist and a peplum below the waist was worn over the gown. They carried cascades of pink roses, white daisies and rubrum lilies in light and dark pink shades.

The best man was Harold Shular and the ushers were the groom's brother, Brian Currie, and Jim Fotherby. The groom and his attendants all wore blue tuxedos.

The Reception was held at Maple Square Hall with the bride's mother receiving in a rose gown, assisted by the groom's mother in a deep pink gown.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls the couple took up residence in Arran Township.

Rev. Neil McCombie officiated and Marilyn McComb, sister of the bride, was organist and Linda Kingwell was soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John McIntosh, chose a polyester organyd gown with fitted bodice and inset cumberbund. Rows of Venice lace and open stitching ran down over the bodice. Her gown featured three quarter length sleeves and the shoulders were accented with lace ruffling. Lace marked of a front panel effect on skirt and a deep ankle ruffle swirled around. The back of the skirt floated into a pretty chapel train. Her headpiece was a Juliet cap of lace and pearls and held in Miss Paula Kirkland and her mother, Mrs. Robt. Kirkland, were in Kitchener where Paula underwent surgery on her nose. We sure hope this is the last ordeal she has to go through to remedy that injury from a car accident several years ago.

There will be a Euchre at the Community Centre on Friday evening.

Our newest granddaughter, Diana Stevens, paid her first visit to us over the Easter weekend. Accompanied by her Mom and Dad and brothers, Mark and Jonathan, they arrived from Bridgen on Good Friday. Annice, John, Sarah and Amy Blake also came from Bridgen as Annice and the girls had stayed with Phyllis and children while John and Wayne had gone to Myrtle Beach. Maureen and Dunc arrived on Good Friday. Early Saturday morning our granddaughter, Trudi, and her husband, Austin Baird, arrived after driving 30 hours straight through from Nova Scotia. Other guest during the weekend were Miss Marilyn Hill of Kitchener, Miss Bonnie Young of Rothsay, Mr. and Mrs. Wray Smith, Mrs. Kathy Mercer, Angela and Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Johnston, Bryn, Kendall and Luke, of Southampton, Mr. and Mrs. Ron France and Steven, Miss Lexy Gowanlock of Port Elgin, Mr. T.J. Fenton, Emily and her husband of Milton and Jewel of London. (So nice to see these two former 4-H girls of mine). Maurice cooked his specialty, stuffed pork chops, for our Easter dinner and Ron France was his assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Ross of Brooklin and Mrs. Madge Legg came to see us Easter Monday.

Saturday morning the Amabel History Society met at the Amabel Township Building. Elgin and Marg Rourke, Marie McDonald, Vera Evans, Viola Chambers, Archie Blue, Barbara Buchanan, Marion Ferris, Shiela Gatis, Annice Blake, Murdoch McKenzie and Helen Gowanlock attended.

Al Lamain brought me a box of Elsinore cookies he bought in San Antonio Texas.

Our prayers and good wishes are with Dow Phillips, who had surgery this past week in the Owen Sound Hospital.

Sorry to hear that Butch and Luella Stewart's son had the misfortune to lost part of his fingers in an accident with a saw.

Steve Smith picked up two awards at the awards banquet of the Southampton Sabres hockey club, this past Saturday night. Smith received awards for scoring the most goals and for earning the most points in a season.

Farmer of the Year
Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Matches and Mr. and Mrs. Borden Fenton attended the Bruce County Federation of Agriculture Banquet and annual meeting in the Ripley Community Centre on Saturday. Borden was presented with the Past President pin by secretary Mary Harvey. Brian and Gisselle Ireland presented Borden and Jean with the Bruce County Farmer of the Year Award. Congratulations.

Mr. Maurice Gowanlock of the Chesley Lake area had the misfortune to lose a fine bred bull on Wednesday last. Mr. Gowanlock had turned the bull out to pasture when the beast broke away, entering into a fight with a neighbour's bull. After some difficulty, the animals were separated and the bull was being led back to the Gowanlock farm. While entering the laneway, the animal suddenly dropped dead. The bull was valued at $300.
