

Farmstead winners announced

ISTEAD IMPROVEMENT 76

The winners of the Farmstead Improvement 76 competition, held in conjunction with the International Plowing Match, were announced at a dinner and dance last Wednesday evening in the Ripley Complex.

The top five winners in the county were: Class 1 - Clarence and Marion McGillivray, Arran Township; Class 2 - Carl and Carol Wiens, Greenock Township; Class 3 - Russell and Wanita Halliday, Elderslie Township; Class 4 - John and Renske Ribbink, Kincardine Township; and Class 5 - Morley Hanidge, Arran Township.

The five classes in the competition were Class 1 - most improved farmstead; Class 2 - most improved home; Class 3 - most attractive homestead; Class 4 - most attractive home; and Class 5 - most attractive gateway.

The county winners were judged from the winners of each category from the county's townships. Judging was done by Mr. Dick Goodin and George Gear, Walkerton, MC for the evening was Mr. Harvey Davis and Mr. Burton Hodgins, chairman of the improvement committee, and his wife, presented the top winners with their prizes.

The winners in the first four classes were presented with silver tea services from Stewart Seeds presented by Andy McTavish, CIAG presented by Jim Powers, Formosa Fire Insurance presented by Alf Brunton, and Kincardine Construction presented by Mr. Fred Tout. Herb Henkenhal, on behalf of the Royal Bank, presented a rose bowl to the winner in Class 5.

The top three winners in each category from each township in Bruce County are as follows:

ELDERSLIE: Class 1 - 1-Keith and Alice Weeden, 2-Ken and Josette Friar, 3-Alex and Gretta McLaggan; Class 2 - 1-Maurice and Alice Dales, 2-Clifford and Gerti McComb; Class 3 - 1-Russell and Wanita Halliday, 2-Harvey and Reta Davis, 3-Bill and Gail Wolfe.

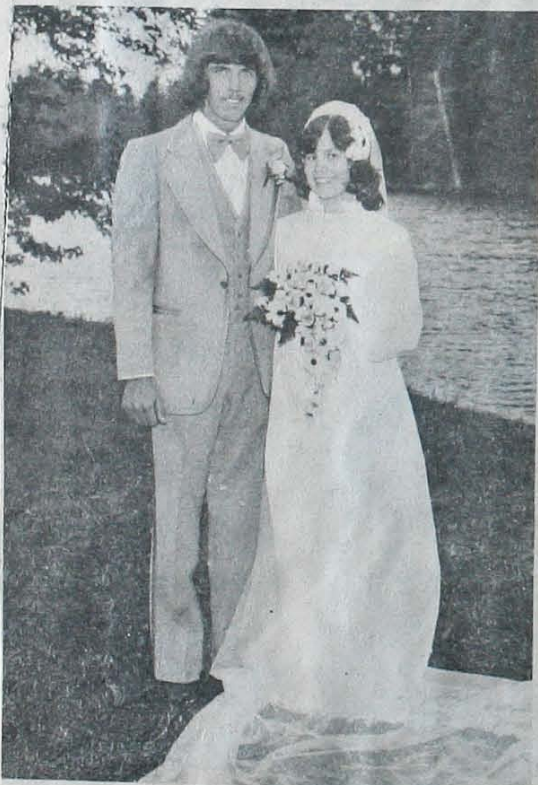

The top five contestants in the Farmstead Improvement 76 competition are pictured with their prizes following the announcement of the winners last Wednesday at the Ripley Complex. Winners in the five classes, from left to right are:

Class 2 - Carl and Carol Wiens; Class 4 - John and Renske Ribbink; Class 5 - Morley Hanidge; Class 3 - Russell and Wanita Halliday; and Class 1 - Clarence and Marion McGillivray.

Wednesday, June 29, 1977

Sisters wed in double ceremony

Pegelo-Black

McKinnon-Black

Photo by Siegrist

Golem-Kraemer

Peter Golem and Theresa Kraemer were married at Mount Zion church, Waterloo, on May 8. The quiet evening wedding was attended by their families, and immediately following the ceremony, Peter and Theresa hosted an informal reception in the fellowship room of the church. Peter and Theresa are presently living in Waterloo but their plans are to spend two years as CUSO volunteers. They are awaiting confirmation on their application to a university teaching position in Thailand.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Glasser wish to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Valerie Lynn to Wallace Harvie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvie, all of Chesley. The wedding will take place at St. Mark's Lutheran Church on Saturday, November 17th, 1979 at 4 p.m. 87-M

The families of Elsie Wilson of Owen Sound and Bruce Demitroff of Chesley are pleased to announce the forthcoming marriage of their parents. The wedding will take place on Friday, July 20, 1979 at 7:00 p.m. in the Chesley United Church. 86-V

In honour of the 40th Wedding Anniversary of Ruby (McKee) and Charles Halliday their family held Open House on June 12, 1977 in the Keady Community Hall. Attended by one hundred and fifty friends and relatives.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Halliday grew up in the Keady Community and spent one and a half years on the groom's farm in Sullivan township. They bought 300 acres on concession 7 in Elderslie township where they still reside. Mr. Halliday is well known throughout Ontario for his interest in and showing Reg. Clydesdale horses. He imported quite a number of Clydesdale horses from Scotland.

They have a family of seven. James and John of London, Corinne and Patricia (Mrs. Bill Roesner) of Vancouver, Russel of Elderslie, Jean, (Mrs. John Burkholder) of Thornhill and Francis of Hanover and eight Grandchildren.

All of the family and many friends and relatives were present for the happy occasion. At seven o'clock the family entertained their parents and the Bridesmaid and Bestman of 40 years ago, Jean (Hemstock) Fenton and Mr. Fenton and Leslie Halliday and Mrs. Halliday to dinner at the Holiday Inn, Owen Sound.

John & Margaret Friar, 1977

A family dinner was held Sunday, April 17 at Barry MacPherson's, Teeswater, to honour Mr. and Mrs. John Friar on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary. Attending besides the happy couple were their son and two daughters and families.

John and Margaret were presented with a coloured television by their family. Everyone wishes the happy couple hearty congratulations and may you have many more years together.

The groom of 40 years ago recalls that it rained on the 17th and for three days after. It goes to prove, John, the sun shines brighter after a rain.