

18,000 at opening of plowing match

APRIL 1976

Sun-Times photos by Doug Camp

MP said after carrying the standard for the Bruce Drums. The parade took an hour to pass any given

IT'S BRUCE COUNTY IN '76 -- The International Plowing Match comes to Bruce County this year and the local committee have been making plans for one of the biggest matches ever. Representatives of the county were on hand for the annual meeting of the Ontario Plowmen's Association held recently in Toronto. Among those local committee members attending were [left to right] Jim Fowler, chairman of publicity; Alf Brunton, chairman of the local committee; Mac Bolton, agricultural representative for the county; Betty Parker, secretary; Harvey Davis, vice-chairman; Bert Ingles, treasurer; and Doug Simpson, Culross, president of the Bruce County Plowmen's Association.

Dead Elms - 1973
Elderslie